By S. R. PADDOCK

We hope home-bound motorists on the Northwest highway appreciated Sunday night the manual control of the Chicago ave. traffic lights in Palatine and Mt. Prospect. Traffic on the highway was speeded up and there are few delays to cross traffic.

Public opinion has won again. The elk herd in Elk Grove will not be used for stew meat. They will be put on permanent exhibition. A hard road will be built around the 20 acre home of the animals to provide easy access by visitors.

The elk seemed to be aware last week that a bit of public relations would help save their skins. They placed themselves on display along the south fence adjoining Higgins rd.

We have no quarrel with a prominent Chicago newspaper which has been noted for taking credit to anything and everything that it can lay its hands on, including circulation figures that include the unsold papers at local newsstands.

However, when that newspaper claims all the credit in the saving of the elk herd in Busse forest preserve, we would like to ask said newspaper what publication built the fire that started the blaze of public opinion which in turn rescued the herd?

Of course, we could not expect a great Chicago daily to admit the power of a weekly. As evidence that we have no chip on our shoulder, we herewith thank the Chicago morning newspaper for its assistance in the rescue of the elks. It is too bad that our reporter could not find a single visitor viewing the elks Friday night who said he came because of the stories in that paper.

We braved the storm Saturday afternoon to attend the DuPage county Republican picnic at Naperville. Gov. Stratton did the same.

We approve his suggestion that he call a special session of the legislature to enact a law establishing lower speed limits in Illinois.

It was a state legislator who killed such a bill in the recent session of the legislature, saying "no member of that body would obey such a law anyway."

Will we have to kill off a few of our legislators in order to safeguard the lives of the average motorist? We are all for the special session.

State officers and politicians vied with each other at the Republican picnic burnishing the halo that speakers said rested on Republican DuPage county, whose inhabitants are the "chosen few" who saved Illinois from Democratic rule.

They probably are not aware that there are more Republican votes in suburban Cook county than DuPage. Perhaps they think that Cook County Republicans are contaminated because they have to live with Democrats in county administration.

A number of Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights businessmen recently fell for a bit of high pressure salesmanship on the part of a charming woman from Des Plaines. She was seeking funds to support a new recreation park on the northwest side of that city.

She admitted the proceeds of the advertising program and play was designed to benefit Des Plaines, but thought that businessmen of neighboring towns would welcome the opportunity to support such a worthwhile recreation project.

Turnabout is only fair play. How about asking the businessmen of our neighboring city to chip in on the next Mt. Prospect or Arlington Heights community project? Our womenfolk can be just as charming on the phone as their Des Plaines sisters.

We intend to find out the shopping habits of residents of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, and Palatine. Where does the average housewife buy her dress or suit? Where does the family buy its shoes? Do men buy their clothing at home, Chicago, Evanston, or Elgin?

We intend to find out.

Local business men are interested, so are the proprietors of the many new stores being opened in the local communities.

Readers who receive survey blanks by mail are asked to fill them out at once and return them to the publication office in the provided free envelopes.

There are two sides to every story and we heard them this week. The two sides of the quadrennial assessment figures are being published in this issue.

The man who expected to pay the taxes wants a low assessment. Taxing bodies, especially the schools, want assessments high enough to get them the taxes they need. The assessor is the man in the middle.

After a study of the assessment maps, we believe that Assessor Keenan has done an excellent job.

We approve his action in assessments of $1,000 an acre for property rezoned for industry. Those owners cannot expect the tax machinery to hold the bag for industrial land speculators, who are holding their property for big profits.

We know that school boards also approve $400 an acre assessments against potential subdivisions. Each one of those acres will sooner or later mean $1,000 a year in extra school costs. They need to start collecting early.

Will New Assessment End Farming In Cook County?

Higher Valuations Make Farming Unprofitable, Say Owners

Cook county farmers fear that the Assessor's office is taxing them out of business.

In a special interview this week with Paddock Publications, Henry L. Moehling, tax committee chairman of the Cook county Farm Bureau, said farming is coming to an end in Cook county, partly because of what he terms an "unfair assessment policy" from the office of Assessor Frank Keenan.

Moehling also charged that "one man dictates the assessment, and this isn't fair or democratic." He demanded that the assessor "keep hands off" the appeal board when farmers protest assessments.

INFLATIONARY values caused by real estate speculators and subdividers are playing havoc with farmland, said Moehling.

"Normally the assessment is 37 per cent of the permit cost," he explained. "But some farm buildings, 30 to 35 years old, are now assessed at 3 times their original cost."

Moehling's chief objection is that farmland is not being assessed on the same basis as other property in the county.

HE SAID one school principal in Wheeling township has boasted that he is working with the Assessor's office to classify agriculture with industry for tax purposes.

Farm income in the last 3 years has dropped 24 per cent, and last month went down another 2 per cent.

"We want assessments equalized," said Moehling. "We want it classified as farmland and not as industry or prospective subdivisions. After all, it's builders and not farmers who are making resale profits off some of the land."

The tax chairman also pointed out that sale of farms for subdividing is now at a "standstill" in this area because surrounding towns have refused to annex any more land until they are able to provide municipal services for the territories now within their boundaries.

MOEHLING SAID an unpublicized change in the tax law is working hardships on farmers whose assessments are way out of line. Prior to 1954, it was possible for Cook county taxpayers to file objections against their real estate assessments for the current year, after they paid the first installment of the tax bill. If a reduction were granted by the board of appeals, then a full adjustment in the amount of the tax was made in the second installment of the tax bill. The 1955 real estate assessment has now been completed and the books available for Wheeling, Schaumburg, Lemont, Niles and Orland townships. Objections to 1955 assessments will be accepted for these townships between August 3 and August 17 only.

"In past years," said Moehling, "1800 people protested after first bills came out. This year, only 500 have so far, chiefly because people do not know the law has been changed."

"FARMERS," he said, "want to support the schools and other community services. But they want to do their fair share and not be milked as an easy source of income."

Moehling warned that if the policy of the Assessor's office continues, it will tax farmers out of business.

He praised Palatine township Assessor Dilks, who he said has uncovered a number of homes not reported previously.

He said that the assessor has included only 8 per cent of the automobiles owned in Cook county on the personal property tax rolls. This is the lowest of any county in Illinois. The highest is 87 per cent.

Farmers Take Partial Beating

After hearing dire predictions that farming was on the way out in Cook county, Paddock Publications decided to get the other side of the story. Here it is as found in Palatine township.

Palatine farmers are not doing any crying. Those engaged in truck gardening have taken a beating this year, but farmers engaged in general farming are smiling.

The housewife may pay 5 to 6 cents a pound for cabbage and 3 pounds of onions for 19 cents, but the truck gardeners only get 1 cent a pound. One Palatine farmer plowed under 10 acres of sweet corn. Another did the same with 4 acres of cabbage. There could have been no profit in their harvesting.

Prices of garden truck opened low this year and has remained low. The extreme heat has hit the tomato crop. Many blossoms withered and died. The same has happened to soy beans, which will reduce the usual crop by one-half.

Yes, there can be big profit in tomatoes when the yield is good. Receipts per acre sometimes go as high as $600 or more, but the yield must reach 8 tons per acre to cover expenses. Campbell Soup pays $35 a ton for grade one and about $23 for grade two.

Tomato growers who rent their land, paying from $20 to $30 an acre are not happy over the situation. The corn borer in some fields is attacking the tomatoes.

The price of onions is low, but the grower our reporter visited is not doing any crying. He sold his first carload this week, but will gamble with the market on the balance of his crop which he has carefully stored.

Incidentally, the crop at his place includes one new Mexican baby a year.

Lucky is the tiller of the soil who engages in diversified farming. Luckier is the man who has had a college education or has learned through the farm bureau and home study the know-how of modern farming methods.

This reporter has always believed that corn prospers in hot weather. The extreme heat this year has probably cut the yield 25 bushels to the acre. He saw some pretty fine corn, but growers will be satisfied this year with yields of 75 bushels to the acre in place of the 100 bushels of a year ago.

Chinch bugs and corn borers are still bothersome and the reporter saw evidences of their activity, but the modern farmer accepts them in stride, depending upon crop rotation and diversified farming to cut such loses down to a minimum.

As a good story always ends happily, the reporter leaves to the last the mention of the big hay and grain crop. Reports of 100 bushels of oats to an acre and 50 bushels of wheat are not uncommon. One grower, and he is not particularly young, said that he has never in his life seen better wheat than was raised this year.

He thinks northeast Illinois is truly God's country as he hears reports from central Illinois and the Rockford area.

The last bundle of grain to be pitched into a threshing machine in this area occurred on the Wm. Bauman farm the other day. He had shocked his grain. The combine has changed such harvesting methods, but Bill got 100 bushels of the very finest white oats. That old time harvesting method went out in glory. Mr. Bauman will follow the trend and use a combine next year.

Yes, there are still profits to be made in farming in Cook county, but the fate of the farms rests upon the farm owners themselves. High prices offered by speculators may be tempting, to them, but they should realize that the county assessor is right on their tails. Unless they receive cash, they are playing with fire.

Explains Assessment Methods

The Cook County Assessor's office this week firmly denied that new tax assessments on farmland are "out of line" despite an occasional protest from area farmers.

The charge had been made that the Assessor's office is valuing land on the basis of inflated prices created by realty speculators and subdividers.

A spokesman for the Assessor said this week that the principal purpose of his office is to equalize values. "A Schaumburg farm has a possible sale value of $300 to $500 an acre. A farm owner near the municipal limits of Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, or Palatine will not even listen to such a price. He should not expect the Assessor's office to place a Schaumburg value on that close-in farm."

IT WAS ADMITTED by the county official that the Assessor has in some cases taken into consideration at farm's proximity to subdivided property, also the use to which the land is placed. In the Kitty Korner area, a nursery is assessed $350 an acre while some of the farmland is assessed from $175 to $225.

Subdivided property is being assessed at $400 an acre, plus the $160 added by the state board of equalization.

Farmland on main highways adjoining existing or proposed subdivisions is being assessed at about $225 an acre, said the official, and "the owners are not objecting to it." Other farms on minor roads range from $160 to $175 an acre.

"The new assessments are not out of line," he told Paddock Publications. "The Assessor's office knows when a farm is sold to a subdividers for $2000 to $3500 an acre. In such a case an increase in assessment is warranted. A $400 figure for such land is very low.

THE LOCAL township assessment committees and the Assessor's office usually agree on basic values of property, but influences are at work to change their decision. An individual farmer thinks the assessment is too high, and a board of education or other taxing body thinks practically all assessments are too low.

Recently the activity of a township school board caused the assessor's office to increase its own appraisal for that township.

Taxpayers who visit the Assessor's office have had difficulty in learning their new assessments because all of the valuation figures had not been transferred from the maps to the books which are available for taxpayers' inspection.

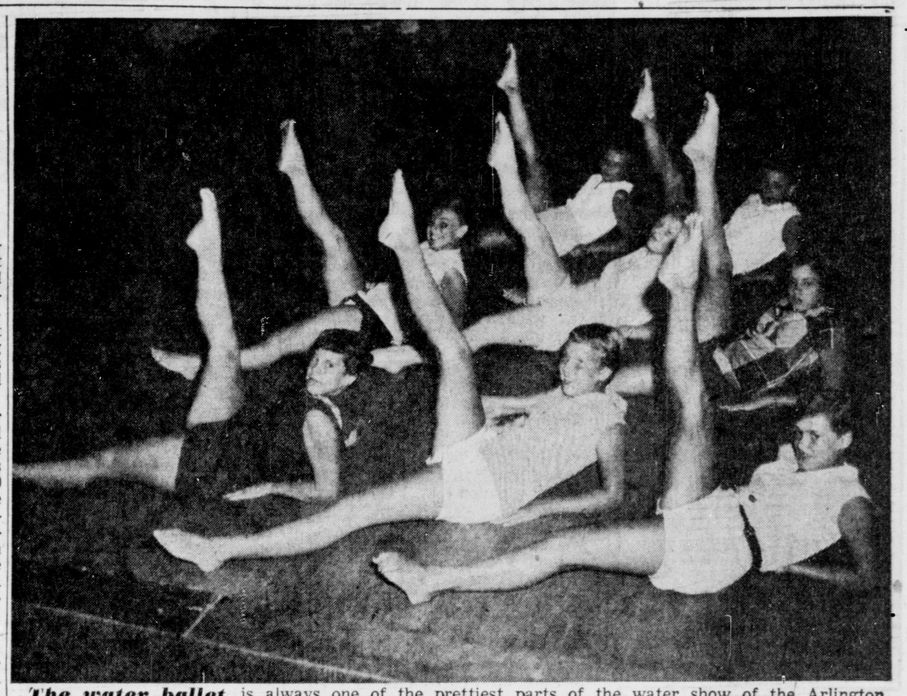
IN WHEELING township, the Assessor advertised that objections could be filed August 3 through 17 but some of the assessment books of Wheeling will not be ready until August 11.

Arlington Heights commercial areas have been given values ranging from $100 to $225 a front foot. The corner of Dunton and Campbell, for example, is valued at $225 a front foot.

Home owners will find their assessments have advanced about 8 per cent, except where there has been an increase in land values due to adjoining activity.



The water ballet is always one of the prettiest parts of the water show of the Arlington Heights park district. This year's water ballet is scheduled for the nights of August 12 and 13, and will again be directed by Marjorie Payne, versatile water ballet career girl who will be teaching it year 'round now that she has been graduated from college.

Doing "ballet legs" for benefit of photographer in this water show rehearsal are 8 of the 120 girls enrolled in the program. Front row, left to right, Melanie Bill, Sandy Peterson and Trudy Summers. Second row, Lynn Stadell, Jean Ewert and Carolyn Fletcher. Back row, Karen Brodahl and June Hall.

4-H FAIR OPENS FRIDAY IN SALUTE TO AREA YOUTH

Exhibits, Entertainment, Judging at Arlington Park

North Cook county salutes its youth this weekend with the opening of the giant 4-H Fair at Arlington Park race track.

Record crowds are expected to throng the park for the 3-day fete of exhibits, entertainment, and judging of farm projects entered by boys and girls of 4-H clubs.

Sixty-one commercial exhibits from businessmen and industries of this area will be on display, including 5 farm implement dealers and 6 new car agencies. The Pure Milk Association will again have a display at the fair this year.

PADDOCK Publications will display an original Washington hand press, loaned by the Newberry Library in Chicago. The printing press is similar to ones used by Benjamin Franklin in 1798 and Paddock Publications in its early publishing days.

As an added attraction this year, the fair is offering cash prizes for the best commercial booth decorations.

In Cook county there are 579 boys and girls enrolled in agricultural 4-H clubs. This is an increase of 45.5 per cent over 1954's membership.

Exhibits of livestock, garden produce, poultry, and home economics projects sponsored by youngsters will be judged by Farm Bureau experts.

HIGHLIGHTS of the fair will include the crowning of a 4-H king and queen, entertainment by stars of radio and television, and a horse show featuring the exciting Northwest Mounted Black Horse troop.

Livestock raised by club members will be paraded Friday and Saturday nights before the grandstand. Stock pens and stalls are to be set up along the pedestrian ramp between the railroad station and club house.

Commercial exhibits, garden produce, and refreshment booths will be placed under the grandstand.

Merchandise booths will display products for the home, farm, and office.

AMONG entertainment highlights wil be 2 home talent shows, and performances by the Tune Twister's orchestra and the Arlington Heights summer band.

The fair, which opens Friday at 9 a.m., will continue through Sunday. It is sponsored by the Cook County Farm Bureau and the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce. Proceeds go to maintain and expand activities of the 4-H club in this area.

The 1954 Fair Board includes L. W. Pohlman, president; William Linneman, vice president; Harvey Pohlman, secretary; A. H. Franzen, treasurer; Dr. R. H. Balfour, Roy Hecht, and Henry Eichholz.

It is the outstanding event of the year for 4-H members in north Cook county.

Grant Variation To Permit Medical Center

A zoning variation to permit the erection of a medical center in Arlington Heights was approved by the village board at its adjourned meeting Tuesday night.

The center is to be located on the west side of N. State rd., just south of Thomas ave.

ONLY ONE objector appeared at the public hearing held by the zoning board of appeals August 4. He was Harvey Adams, representing the LaSalle National Bank's trust number 12012. This trust is the land just north of the site for the medical center, fronting 141 feet on State rd., and running approximately 300 feet west on Thomas. Mrs. Eva Adam, wife of Harvey, is the sole heir to the trust.

Adams appealed in his client's behalf with 2 main objections. He feared the circular drive planned to go around the center as an ingress and egress, with at least 200 cars a day using it, would depreciate the value of the property of his client, who purchased it originally for the purpose of erecting residential homes. He also objected for the good of the public, as he felt the increased traffic on State rd. resulting from the placement of the medical center would endanger the lives of school children, since 2 schools are located on that thoroughfare.

A letter was also read at the village board meeting Tuesday, asking the board not to take any action on the zoning board's recommendation until Adams returned from his vacation August 22.

Several of the board members felt the matter had been delayed long enough and Trustee John Hoover moved the board concur on the zoning board's recommendation. It was seconded by Trustee Richard Bronwell and unanimously passed by the 6 trustees.

THE PROPOSED medical center will be operated by 10 doctors, including surgeons, a pediatrician, gynecologist and obstetrician, oculist, and general practitioners. These doctors now have offices in Arlington Heights, Palatine and Des Plaines.

The building will occupy 40,000 square feet, with the lot on which it is to be erected containing 72,000 square feet. It will be one story with full basement. The basement quarters will be occupied by the American Medical Society for Research. This group compiles information on latest medical discoveries and publishes them in pamphlet form for distribution all over the U.S.

One of the best proposed features is a first-class X-ray department, which would be shared by all doctors in the center. A pharmacy will also be located in the building for the convenience of doctors and patients alike.

Sheriff, Village Police Still Seek Rapist Of Mother

Police are searching for a 28-year-old rapist who threatened and attacked a young Palatine mother last week.

The woman, 27, resides on Meacham rd. south of Palatine.

She and her small daughter had gone to the mail box on the road, and the child had returned to a sand box nearby when the man, described as 5' 7" and weighing 150 lbs., stepped from some shrubbery and at gun point forced the woman into her bedroom.

After threatening her life, the rapist forced the mother to disrobe and then attacked her.

Later he told the woman to remain in bed while he made his escape, but she was able to run to a window and see a hand-painted panel truck drive away from the house.

Palatine police were notified immediately, and they called in the county sheriff's police.

The rapist was wearing a lumberman's jacket, blue denims, and engineer boots.

County sheriff's police this week arrested an Arlington Heights youth charged with the statutory rape of a 16-year-old farm girl.

Monday Is Dollar Day

The crowds are coming!

Arlington Heights' downtown shopping district will take on the appearance of race track season Monday as hundreds of shoppers throng local stores.

Monday will be a bargain-hunter's heyday as 31 Arlington Heights merchants participate in what is slated to be one of the largest Dollar Day celebrations ever staged in the northwest towns.

All stores will be open for the mobs of thrifty shoppers from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. with some keeping doors open until 9 p. m.

"This is it," exclaimed one merchant. "We've slashed prices for this special Dollar Day sale. Bargains are unexcelled. Nothing like this has ever been offered on so large a scale in Arlington Heights before."

Although Dollar Day savings are quickly becoming traditional in Arlington, the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the Give-away Day, reported that this promises to be one of the biggest yet.

Arlington Heights traffic policemen will be available to handle overloaded streets if automobile congestion becomes too great.

Shoppers were advised to get to stores early before the "best bargains" had been picked over.

Lines were expected to form at store doors early.

Advertisements of the better bargains may be found in this week's newspaper.

The list of participating merchants may be found in this section.

New Village Maps Now Available To Public

The village map of Arlington Heights has now been brought up to date and shows all the new subdivisions and streets in the village. Copies of the map, 21x34 inches, are now available at the village hall for 15 cents each.

Conclude 2 More 'Hospital Projects' This Weekend

This weekend 2 more events to aid the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center will be concluded. They are the play, "Hansel and Gretel," to be presented by the Hansel and Gretel Players of Arlington Heights and Palatine, and the awarding of the "doll of the year" by the Arlington Heights Nurses club.

"HANSEL AND Gretel" will be presented on the stage of the Methodist church, Dunton and St. James, Arlington Heights, Saturday at 2 and 4 p.m. The parts of Hansel, Gretel and the Witch will be portrayed by several different people, changing the cast in the various scenes.

The cast includes: Gretel—Marcia Schroeder, Elizabeth Steingraber, Susan Staahl, Karen Meyer; Hansel—Rory Foster, Phyllis Muran, Bob Finch; Sandman—Linda Wilds; Stepmother—Roberta Hill; Father — Dempster Leach; Witch — Kay Krebsbach, Annette Schroeder, Mary Lou Dunderdale; Blackbirds—Debbie Service, Carol Staahl.

Originally only one performance was planned, but advance ticket sales indicated a demand for a second show so the Players will oblige. Tickets will be good at either performance.

Tickets will be available at the door and pop may be purchased during intermission. Ushers, attired in summer formals, will be Vicki Mogren, Stephanie Ackley, Juanita Graves, Pat Ligget and Sharon Wischstadt.

THE "DOLL of the year" will be on display at the 4-H Fair at Arlington Park race track this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the Nurses club will announce the new owner of the doll at the Fair Sunday evening.

The nurses club hopes to raise $1,000 through this project for the proposed hospital that will serve residents of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine, Schaumburg and Barrington townships.

North Side Paper Pickup Saturday

North side residents in Arlington Heights are urged to place their old newspapers and magazines on the curb before 9 a.m. this Saturday morning. Boy scouts will hold another paper pickup at that time.

Papers should be tied in bundles or placed in boxes. Those desiring, may bring their paper to the North school grounds before noon Saturday. Do not leave paper at grounds if paper pickup trucks are not there.

Special handling can be arranged by calling CLearbrook 3-4224.

Firemen To Hold Free Street Dance August 20

The second annual free street dance sponsored by the Arlington Heights fire department will be held Saturday, August 20, from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight, on S. Dunton ave., opposite the Jewel store.

Two orchestras will be on hand, one to play for modern dancing, the other for square dancing. Refreshments will be served and other special attractions will be available during the evening. The general public is invited.

Tax Collections Make Slow Start

Vacation time and the excessive hot weather seem to have had a depressing effect on tax payments at the offices of the township collectors who opened up for business last week.

Payments of the second installment of the 1954 real estate bills have been very moderate according to the collectors who say that this condition of affiars means a big rush in the closing days of the collection.

Elk Safe! Credit Press For 'Rescue'

The power of the public press was credited this week with rescuing a historic herd of 27 elk from slaughter.

The herd roams a 20 acre pasture in Busse Forest, south of Arlington Heights. The county board had originally planned to dispose of the rare animals, but hundreds of protests from citizens prompted Dan Ryan, president of the board, to reverse the earlier decision.

NOT ONLY will the elk stay, but the forest preserve district is also planning to build a road which will enable people to better view the animals. At present they can be seen only from Higgins rd.

Three weeks ago the Chicago Tribune published an article telling of the board's plan to dispose of the herd, started in 1924 by the late William Busse because this area was once heavily populated with elk.

Paddock Publications picked up the crusade and through its news columns informed residents of the northwest towns what was being planned. Most of the protests to the county came from this area.

"WE CREDIT Paddock Publications with really stirring up the public," said Sgt. John Keippel of the forest preserve police. "The crowds started coming after your articles."

Last week Paddock gave the story to the Chicago Daily News, which also published articles on the plan to abandon the elk.

A survey Friday night of 36 cars parked at the pasture revealed that 16 of the spectators were there because of the Daily News articles and 20 because of the Paddock newspapers.

Another example of public service from community and daily newspapers!

Summon 4 Fire Squads For House Blaze In Pinegate Highlands

Four fire departments were summoned to Pinegate Highlands Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. to extinguish a fire which caused an estimated $5,000 damage to house and garage of Orville Koltweit, Pine and Sunset rds.

Assisting the Prospect Heights firemen were units from Palatine, Arlington Heights, and Mount Prospect.

Chief Fran Foor of Prospect Heights said the blaze apparently started in the garage, which ended as a total loss. Part of the house, which is attached to the garage, also burned.

Mrs. Koltweit was not at home when the fire was discovered by her 11-year-old daughter, who had gone to the bedroom to make a bed and noticed smoke pouring from the garage.

The house was not completed since the Koltweits were building it themselves.

Birthdays

When Gail Granis celebrated her second birthday July 23, relatives and neighbors all joined forces to help make it a merry one.

Pam Hauth, 512 N. Yale, was guest of honor at 2 parties celebrating her fifth birthday. Sunday a barbecue was held for the family and Monday she had as guests for lunch, several little neighborhood friends; Cheryl Huster, Pam Townsend, Jan Sittig and Sally Mackery.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Sittig, 515 N. Yale, entertained 20 of Bill's relatives from nearby communities at a buffet supper.

Sorry to say, young Mike Graczyk, 1417 W. Fremont, was hurt while at play last week and several stitches were required to close the wound.

For her birthday, Joyce Ackerlund, 1509 W. Fremont, had a few friends in for afternoon coffee and Friday evening her husband, Skip, helped her celebrate the day with dinner at the Supper club.

Several weeks ago in this column it was reported that Timmy Comeford, 1405 W. Fremont, was enjoying a summer camp in Wisconsin. Unhappily, while at camp, he became ill with polio and is now in St. Mary hospital in Wausau, Wis., where his mother, Mary, of course, has gone to be with him. Perhaps it would help to cheer and encourage him if he were to receive a few cards and letters from the folks back home, letting him know that his friends were thinking of him and praying for him.

Tell the World

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land" is inscribed on the Liberty bell in Philadelphia.

Q. Should a dinner guest ever rise from the table before the hostess rises?

A. Never. It is the privilege and duty of the hostess to rise first.

Q. At an informal dinner, where there is no maid, who should start a dish around the table?

A. The person nearest to that dish.

Q. May one ever use the fork for eating a double-decker sandwich?

A. Not if it is of the "closed sandwich" variety. It should be eaten with the fingers. If it is an "open" sandwich, then the fork is used.

Egg Prices Not As High As Expected; Buy Fewer Chicks

by L. H. SIMERL

Prices of eggs are not so high as seemed probable earlier this year. In fact, they have recently been 1 to 4 cents lower than they were a year ago. But there is still a good chance for them to move up to 15 or 20 cents a dozen by October. During the coming winter and next spring, the average may be 5 to 8 cents above last year.

Farmers has 5 to 10 per cent more hens (and pullets of laying age) in July than the year before. Poultrymen have held their laying hens longer than usual this year to offset in part the smaller number of chicks purchased for laying flocks replacements. Recent hot weather, however, has probably cut egg production and speeded up culling.

FARMERS BOUGHT about 20 per cent fewer chicks for flock replacement this year than last. Pullets from these chicks will furnish most of the eggs during the fall months. By September egg production may be around 10 per cent lower than it was in 1954. Production is then expected to continue below year-before levels through mid-1956.

Costs of feed for poultry are now lower than they were last year, and they are likely to continue at these lower levels for a year at least. The lower feed costs, together with some improvement in egg prices, should put a little profit back into the egg business.

PRICES FOR BROILERS have recently been 2 to 4 cents above year-before figures. This rise has occurred even though market supplies have exceeded those of a year before. Further increases in supplies, however, will help to cut prices substantially before the end of the year.

Record numbers of broilers will be marketed during August and September. Placements of chicks in broiler areas point to 10 to 15 per cent more broilers and fryers now than in August and September last year.

The demand for broilers often slacks off in the late fall and early winter. The reason may be increased competition from turkeys at that time. If broiler placements are not soon reduced, quite low prices are likely during the last few months of this year.

EARLIER THIS YEAR it appeared that turkey production would be overdone. Many producers took note of the situation and cut production. They are raising 30 per cent fewer of the light breeds than last year, though they have cut heavy breeds only about 3 per cent. These figures indicate that there will be 7 to 8 per cent less turkey meat than in 1954.

Prices of turkeys this fall may be up 3 to 5 cents a pound over those of a year earlier. These high prices, together with lower costs for feed, may lead to some overproduction in 1956.

Approve One Portion of Water Improvement Plan

Awarding of a contract for one small portion of the proposed water improvements for Arlington Heights was approved by the village board at its adjourned meeting Tuesday night.

BOARD MEMBERS failed to have a "meeting of the minds" as to just what needed to be done to safeguard the village's water supply to assure an adequate supply at all times. The overall program included the following improvements: rehabilitation of well No. 4; new well equipment and new water mains, including the interconnection of all 6 village wells.

Two bids received last week set the price of the entire project at approximately $150,000.

Paul Johnson of the firm Consoer, Townsend and Associates, village engineers, who prepared the water supply report, told board members the proposed improvement would do much to solve the water problem for "X" number of years. Just how long it would be before the village would need a new well could not be determined at this time.

WHEN ASKED by Trustee Frederick Weber if the proposed improvements would alleviate the low water pressure in the Sherwood section of the village, Johnson could not actually say the condition would be solved, though he felt it would be improved to some extent. Weber, therefore, felt further study should be given to the matter, to be sure all aspects of the problem were taken into consideration.

Trustee Robert Bishop felt the board should take action at this time to at least interconnect all the wells, using surplus funds in the water account to pay for the improvement. This portion of the work would cost approximately $52,000.

Trustees Forrest Davis and James Millay were reluctant to pay that much money out of surplus funds, as they felt there should be a general revenue bond issue floated for all capital improvements in the village, thus spreading the payment over a period of years, with newcomers as well as old timers sharing in the expenses.

However, they did agree that at least one additional well should be connected into the Ridge ave. reservoirs at this time, and made a motion that the Kennicott well be so connected, and the work paid for out of surplus water funds. The board also approved the extension of a 12-inch water main in Miner st., along Davis, tying in with a 10-inch main at Wing and Vail. This, too, will be paid for out of surplus funds.

1,000 Tour New VFW Club At Dedication

More than 1,000 persons attended the 2-day dedication program of Arlington Heights Post 981, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held last Saturday and Sunday at the new VFW club house.

Highlight of the event was the dedication program held Sunday afternoon. It began with the raising of a new flag to the top of the flag pole and a salute fired in memory of those from Arlington Heights who gave their lives for American Freedom.

Albert W. Goedke, village president, was among the guests of honor, which included other governing officials and representatives of other community organizations. The dedication address was given by Raymond (Bud) Schild, past department commander of the VFW. He said, "This building is the symbol of the VFW motto 'Honor the Dead by Helping the Living,' and citizens should be proud of the Arlington post for what they have already done for the community and will have cause to be even prouder as years go on."

Post Commander Alex Angeloff, pledged full cooperation of the post in all civic and community projects and reminded the citizens that the building is available to aid such projects.

A tour of the building and its facilities was held following the dedication. George Miller, past commander of the second district, department of Illinois VFW, served as master of ceremonies.

Subdivider Agrees To Build Full Street In Lieu Of Park Area

The Arlington Heights plan commission Monday night approved a subdivision plat which included provision for paving a street in lieu of dedicating land for school and park purposes.

The committee recommended approval of Minneci's Arlington Heights Resubdivision, a 28 acre development of 122 lots south of Campbell st. between Kennicott and Dwyer aves.

Approval was made on the condition John Minneci would show building lines and easements and with Park ave. extension eliminated.

The builder agreed to pay for paving full width of that portion of Kennicott ave. from Grove st. to the southern end of the subdivision. The improvement will include 22 ft. of pavement and 3 ft. for both curbs and is in lieu of dedicating land for public use.

The park board had said it was not in favor of their being required to maintain small patches of park throughout the village and in new subdivisions.

Mobile X-Ray Unit In Heights August 18

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents 15 years old and over, August 18, when a mobile unit is parked at the village hall, 101 W. Davis st., Arlington Heights.

X-raying hours are from 12 noon to 6 p.m.

THE UNIT, intended to serve as an adjunct to the routine community, industry, food handler and school surveys conducted in various parts of the year, is available primarily to persons needing large 14 x 17 in. X-rays for pre-employment, pre-marital, prenatal, and licensing purposes, or as follow-up to suspicious signs found in small-film surveys. However, since the unit can take small "survey" X-rays, too, persons who have not checked their chests for TB within the past year, can do so at this time.

The service is being provided by the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium district in cooperation with the Christmas Seal-sponsored Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county and municipal health departments.

Annual Water Ballet At Park Pool Friday, Saturday Nights

Arlington Heights Park District's 10th annual water pageant, "Broadway's My Beat," will be presented at the pool, Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m., under the direction of Marjorie Payne, 712 S. Hi Lusi ave., Mt. Prospect.

More than 100 girls from 8 to 18 and several adult swimmers will take part in 15 numbers of dancing and water routines. It is the most extensive ballet yet attempted and has provided summer recreation and training for 50 per cent more young ladies than any past show.

NOT ONLY the Broadway that is an Irish cop's beat but many famous landmarks and recreation centers of New York and its environs will be brought to Arlington Heights for the show. As the Irish Jamie O'Brien relates his story and nostalgic New York tunes come softly over the loudspeaker the young swimming stars will illustrate his story in dance and swim routines.

Designed by the director, costumes have been made by the girls and their mothers and their color and smartness are expected to add much to the unusual show

Following an introduction by Judy Weisenbach, Judy Peterson and Judi Clabaugh, the policeman-narrator swings into a description of Central Park with its horse-drawn hacks.

TAKING THE part of the horses will be Joey Duro, Trilla Anne Reeves, Michele Peterson, Cathy Flanagan, Carol Trendel, Dianna Reed, Nora Ann Flanagan, and Marie Scott. Hack drivers will be Grayce Beckway and Karen Menick.

In a Bowery number, the "Bowery Boys" will be Norma Peterson, Jean Ewert, Sandy Peterson, Carolyn Fletcher, June Hall, Melanie Bill, Karen Brodahl, Trudy Summers, Grayce Beckway, Judy Keppen, Lynn Stadel, Simone Malchow.

Yankee Stadium and a ball game to the tune of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," the theatre and "South Pacific," Rockefeller Center and its ice skaters, Barnum & Bailey Circus, Chinatown, Coney Island, a Street Scene, the Bronz Zoo, the Market Place, New York at Night, Madison Square Garden and the Harlem Globetrotters, the "21 Club", all will be in store for the audience, constituting just about the biggest "beat" any New York cop ever had.

EXCEPT FOR 2 adult numbers, the intermission event, Coney Island, and New York at Night, it's an all young folks cast. Divers Sue Disney and Bill Tutor, of collegiate fame, will appear in Coney Island. Arlington Heights' own Nancy Rauworth and Polly Pieroni, who have appeared professionally, will do New York at Night.

Those appearing in the other acts are:

Heat Records Shrink Corn Crop Over U.S.

Heat records continued to be broken all over the country as temperatures went over 90 degree day after day from Nebraska to New York. July was the hottest on record at Chicago and Syracuse. Nebraska, the hottest area in the corn belt, reported temperatures of over 100 degree for more than a week straight. These temperatures, with only widely scattered showers, reduced the corn crop day by day, particularly in western areas.

Nebraska, all of western Iowa, and southwestern Minnesota were areas suffered the most. Wide cracks in the soil, two inches wide and two feet deep opened up, indicating a shrinkage due to lack of moisture and encouraging further loss by evaporation. Nearby areas in the Dakotas, eastern Iowa, northern Missouri, and northern Illinois were just starting to show some deterioration, but if rain came soon, corn could still be an above average crop.

THE CORN CROP is being hurt badly in some sections, but others are looking forward to the best crop in years. DeKalb's Seed Corn Crop Observers in the southern two-thirds of Illinois, the southern half of Indiana, most of Ohio, Kentucky, and the southeastern states are quite optimistic.

Olney, Illinois, the center of last year's drought, reported a four inch rain recently. DeKalb's seed crop at Tuscola, in central Illinois, is reported to be the best on record, due to a heavy July rainfall. In these areas where drought last year ruined the corn to the point where thousands of acres were not even picked, farmers are looking toward the best crop in years.

THE CORN BORER threat in Iowa proved to be far less serious than indicated earlier. A survey by Iowa State Entomologist, Gunderson, showed first brood borers only one-fourth as numerous as in 1954. However, there are still plenty to produce a heavy second brood. In Illinois, borers were believed to be more numerous in northern central Illinois, with a tapering off in northern counties and in the central areas.

Entomologists, Petty in Illinois and Gunderson in Iowa, advised spraying of late planted fields where infested. Dry weather always favors grasshoppers, and southern Iowa, northern Missouri, and Kansas and Nebraska had millions of them. Even states further east showed heavy populations in scatered sections. Present day sprays, however, can do a god job of eliminating this pest.

One of the advantages of having money, an expert on investments said recently, is that nothing should be able to hurt you — if you protect yourself against any eventuality by a balanced program of savings. Board Orders Cement Plant To Quit, or Face Fine

Consumers Co. cement batching plant, 301 W. Noorthwest hwy., was ordered Wednesday morning to cease operations as a result of having their license revoked August 1. The business is operating on a nonconforming zoning basis and has been found to be a nuisance.

Each day the company is in violation of this order the police will issue an arrest ticket. It is subject to a fine of not less than $25, nor more than $200 for each day it is found to be in violation.

action was taken at the adjournment meeting of the village board Tuesday night and was approved by a vote of 4-2, with Trustee Robert Bishop voting no and Trustee Richard Bronwell passing his vote.

TESTS WILL BE MADE of the entire paving project in the Virginia Terrace subdivision to check whether or not village specifications for the street have been carried out. A preliminary check indicated portions of some streets did not meet requirements.

The plan commission will be asked to render a recommendation on the condemnation of 3 houses on Wing st., one fronting on Vail and the other two in back of it, for the purpose of additional off-street parking facilities.

The ordinance annexing 10 acres of land in the Fidelity Arlington Estates was passed by the board. This land had previously been in the village and was disconnected in 1938 or '39. The property is the north half of a 20-acre subdivision bounded on the west half by Stratford, east half by Gibbons, south by Euclid and north by Oakton.

The board passed another ordinance which provides that only the police chief be considered as a village officer. All other policemen will be considered as employees of the village.

FIRST READING of an ordinance amending the present village ordinance dealing with business licenses was held. The amendment will provide for the licensing of all wholesale food trucks making deliveries in the village.

Two variations in zoning to provide for parking lots were referred to the zoning board of appeals for a public hearing. One was for the First Presbyterian church, which desires to put in a parking lot on the land just north of the church on Dunton ave. The other is to provide for parking next to a commercial lot on Lot 53 in the Stonegate subdivision.

The board is contemplating an amendment to the zoning ordinance which will provide that all new commercial buildings must have adequate parking facilities before a permit will be issued. The building commissioner will be instructed not to issue any permits for commercial buildings until checked by the board.

H. B. Overton, 842 N. State rd., who was issued a business license by mistake last May, will be refunded the $30 license fee. He was operating a real estate and insurance business in a residential area.

Street Dance

A successful street dance, much needed rain, and cooler weather — what a terrific weekend! The association's first street dance Friday evening had a wonderful turnout. In fact, even the moon came out for the dance which was quite unexpected because of the threatening weather. That deluxe barbecue grill that everyone could picture in their own back yard was won by Evelyn Sage, 700 E. Oakton. Evelyn was thrilled with the grill especially since it was the first thing she had ever won. Her neighbors are now whetting their appetities for barbecued chickens and spareribs and who can blame them? By the way, if you heard the strains of "Happy Birthday" during the course of the evening it was either for Ray Raines or Ray Epsky, both of whom celebrated their birthday that evening. Wally Johnson and Don Peterson offer a big "thank you" to everyone who helped to make their first social event the succes that it was.

Improvements

Happy news for homeowners who have dead trees in their parkway....Karl Goodman announced at the association meeting August 2 that Mr. Horwitz will definitely replace all the dead trees regardless of whether they were first or second plantings.

A. J. Baugous, a member of the improvement committee reports that stop signs have been ordered for Oakton at State rd. and speed limit signs are also on order for Oakton. Seems that the "sign department" of the village is fresh out of these signs but as soon as a supply comes in they will be installed. Another safety precaution is the issuing of an order to the state highway commission to remove weeds and brush on the southeast corner of Oakton and State up to where the sidewalk would be. The chief of police in turn has ordered the brush to be cleared 1 foot back of where the sidewalk would be so this should certainly clear the view for drivers pulling out of Oakton onto State rd.

A note of interest for residents on Douglas who have wondered what caused the flooding of their street. It has been learned that there are several broken tiles in the storm sewer blocking the flow of water down the sewer. These tiles will be repaired by Red Seal and thereby end the flooding of Douglas.

Bowling League

Anyone who is interested in joining the association's mixed bowling league has until August 15 to phone Ben Zaborowski at Clearbrok 3-5386.

Bridge Tournament

Hear ye, all bridge enthusiasts . . . the Green's round robin of bridge will begin in October. Bridge will be played the first Friday of every month starting with the first Friday in October and ending with the first Friday in May. Each couple pays $1 each time they play and this money is used as prize money at the end of the season. Anyone interested in playing bridge and meeting new couples in the Greens may call John Coward, 1142 N. Dryden. John is the bridge chairman and will be able to furnish all the details. His number is Clearbrook 3-5891.

This 'n That

Randy Buttstadt, who was just 2 years old August 1 livened up Sunday afternoon for his parents, Rosemary and Karl Buttstadt. Randy's grandparents had stopped over for a visit and gave him a roll of Life Savers which Randy proceeded to enjoy. The enjoyment was of short duration when Randy swallowed a whole one and began choking. Karl called the operator who in turn called the fire department's inhalator squad. The Buttstadts were amazed at the speed with which their call was answered. Fortunately the Life Saver was dislodged by frequent and hard slaps on the back. Needless to say, there will be no more Life Savers for Randy.

Cooler weather will soon be here and that means it's square dancing time again. Ruth and Ray Epsky have been square dancing enthusiasts ever since the association's square dance in February, and are determined to learn more about it. Right now the extent of their knowledge is limited to an occasional "dosee-doe and away we go." Come September there will be a beginners class in square Palatine. Classes will be held Wednesday nights from 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. and the charge is $1.25 per couple. Instructors are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Weitzel, who conducted the Green's square dance. Ruth is anxious to hear from couples who are interested in learning to square dance so they can all take lessons together. Ruth's phone number is Clearbrook 3-2780.

Just as pretty as the new Palatine park district swimming pool is the crew of girl volunteers helping almost 700 boys and girls learn to swim. The program, co-sponsored by the Red Cross and the park district, is the first in Palatine's history, and is a successful operation.

Improvement association had a nice day for their picnic at Cedar lake last Sunday. Because of other activities there were about 8 or 9 families who enjoyed the day.

Going in another direction to start a vacation were the Oscar Millers. They were going to stay up in Lake Geneva but came home because Pam caught what was apparently the "flu bug."

Relatives of Mrs. Roy Thompson enjoyed an outdoor party in Wedgewood last Sunday. The party the Thompsons gave was for her sister, Mrs. Elsie Schmidt, who with her husband is vacationing in Chicago from Los Angeles.

The Dietrichs will be vacationing themselves for a couple of weks and your reporter would be happy if you would call Wedgewood happenings into the publication office directly-- Cl. 3-1520.

Wool Growers Vote

Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the Cook county agricultural stabilization and conservation committee, said all Cook county wool growers will have an opportunity to vote in a referendum to decide whether or not deductions will be made from wool payments to provide a means of financing the wool marketing development program.

In the referendum wool growers will have an opportunity to vote for or against putting into effect an agreement recently made between the secretary of agriculture and the American sheep producers council under section 708 of the national wool act of 1954.

THE AGREEMENT provides for deductions from wool incentive and lamb and yearling sheep (pulled wool compensating) payments made to producers under the National Wool act of 1954. These deductions will provide for advertising, and other promotional activities to enlarge and improve the market for wool and lambs. Before the agreement can be put in effect, producers owning at least two-thirds of the sheep and lambs represented by those voting in the referendum must vote their approval.

Producers who have owned sheep, 6 months of age or older, for at least 30 days since January 1, 1955, will be eligible to vote. Volume of production will be based on the number of sheep 6 months of age or older owned for at least 30 days since the January 1 date. The number of sheep will be noted on the balot.

proved, deduction from payments of the 1955 incentive program to be made the summer of 1956 will be one cent per pound from wool payments, and at the rate of 5 cents per one hundred pounds liveweight from lamb and yearling payments.

Cook county ASC office have mailed ballots to all known wool producers in the county and chairman Bormet assures any producer who does not receive a ballot that he can get one by writing to or calling at the ASC county office.

Chairman Bormet said all ballots must be returned to the ASC Office not later than 5 p.m. August 19th. Since the results of the referendum will be based on the number of sheep represented by the growers, the outcome of the vote yill be known Sept. 1.

Two excellent hot weather dessert suggestions are being shared with us this week by Mrs. John Vork.

One is for a Fruit Cocktail Cake, so simple to prepare that it takes less than 10 minutes. No shortening or liquid is used.

The dry ingredients, flour, sugar, soda and salt, are sifted together and combined with one beaten egg and a can of fruit cocktail. The batter is poured into a tin and sprinkled with a combination of brown sugar and nuts.

While baking, the topping seeps into the cake, making it moist and flavorful, similar to a spice cake in appearance.

Somewhat like a pudding, this unique cake is delicious served with whipped cream or ice cream.

Another unusual idea shared with us by Mrs. Vork is for chocolate ice cream cups. These are made by melting chocolate bits and shortening and molding the chocolate around the inside of paper cup cake containers.

The cups are chilled and the paper removed when the chocolate is firm. The chocolate cups are filled with ice cream and sprinkled with chopped nuts when served. Or they can be filled in advance and placed in the freezer until serving time.

This is a clever way to serve ice cream, as the dessert has eye and flavor appeal.

The Vorks live at 415 N. Yale in Westgate. They have 2 children, Karen, 13, and Julie, 3½. Mrs. Vork is voters' service chairman for the League of Women Voters and is co-chairman of circle 12 of the First Presbyterian church.

Fruit Cocktail Cake

1 cup all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
1 No. 2 can fruit cocktail, drained
1 egg, beaten

Business Women Plan Glamour Weekend

A "glamour weekend" in Chicago in which local women are invited to participate is scheduled for September 3, 4 and 5, by Sigma Alpha Sigma, the national business sorority. It will be another one of those "champagne vacations" on a soda pop budget for which the organization is famous.

This Labor day weekend vacation is an annual feature of the working girl's sisterhood's non-profit travel service and is open to non-members for the sole purpose of introducing the organization and its various benefits to the business women.

The group will stay at the Knickerbocker hotel on Chicago's fashionable "Gold Coast." Luncheon Saturday will be at the Drake hotel. There will be time Saturday afternoon for shopping and dinner Saturday night will be at one of the famous restaurants on Rush st.

Sunday morning will be free for church; then brunch at the hotel followed by a 2-hour cruise on Lake Michigan in a new streamlined boat with a guide to point out the places of interest along Chicago's skyline and lake front. Dinner will be at the Rathskeller and this will be followed by a night club tour including Honolulu; Harry's Waikiki for the Hawaiian show; then to the Blue Angel for the Calypso program and then to the famous Chez Paree.

Monday morning the group will visit the Art Institute and the Museum and follow this with a luncheon in the courtyard at Jacques French restaurant. The weekend will close with a cocktail party.

The cost of the entire weekend is $35 and includes hotel accommodations, meals, tips taxis, the night-club tour and sightseeing. Local girls seeking something exciting for the long Labor day weekend are invited to write to Sigma Alpha Sigma, 20 W. Jackson blvd., Chicago, or may contact the regional chairman, Miss Isabell Hoth, 8236 Kildare, Skokie.

"Still is the Night" and "Ich Lieber Dich" were the songs sung by Miss Barbara Sandvold and Mrs. John Derby played the organ.

Words Often Misused

The words "till" and "until" are interchangeable. "Until" is more commonly preferred at the beginning of a sentence. Notice that "till" is a word in its own right, and should not be spelled " 'til."

Do not say, "I am sick to my stomach." Primarily, "to" means direction toward, and one is not sick "in the direction of" one's stomach. Say, "I am sick at my stomach," or, "I am nauseated."

Do not say, "He came out from the house." Say, "out of the house."

Do not say, "She pled with her husband." Say, "She pleaded."

Remember that "suspect" is the verb, and "suspicion" the noun. Do not say, "I suspicioned that his claim was false." Say, "I suspected that his claim was false."

Do not say, "He is some better today," or, "They have changed the arrangement some." Say, "He is somewhat better today," and, "They have changed the arrangement somewhat."

Words Often Mispronounced

Frequent (adjective and verb). Accent adjective on first syllable, the verb on the second syllable.

Gyve (a shackle). Pronounce as "Jive."

Biography. Pronounce the i as in bite, not as in bit.

Route. Pronounce as root, not as rowt.

Troche (medicinal tablet). Pronounce troe-kee, with accent on first syllable.

Geiger (instrument for detecting radio-activity). Pronounce to rhyme with "tiger."

Words Often Misspelled

Insure; perferred to "ensure." Immobile; two m's. Verbatim; tim, not tum. Staccato; observe the two c's. Paraffin; one r, two f's. Fullness (completeness), two l's; fulsome (offensive), only one l.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Irrevocable; incapable of being revoked; unalterable. (Accent second syllable, not the third). "This is an irrevocable law."

Infatuate; to inspire with a foolish and extravagant passion. "Her many charms infatuated him."

Pervasive; spreading through every part; permeating. "Her personality was pervasive."

Loquacious; given to talking; garrulous. "Anne is loquacious and very tiresome."

Imploration; earnest supplication. "They raised their arms in imploration."

Documentary; contained or certified in writing. "They produced documentary evidence."

Railway Express Stops Service To Palatine And Mount Prospect

Railway Express agency has discontinued direct service to Palatine and Mount Prospect in an attempt to consolidate their operation and create faster, more efficient service to their customers.

Palatine residents must now go to 110 W. Davis st. in Arlington Heights. Mount Prospect is served by the agency in Des Plaines.

Explaining the change, Arlington Heights agent Frank Dean said it was an effort to speed up service in the depots. In the past, Chicago and North Western railway ticket agents were required to also act as expressmen. Now Railway Express has its own employee in a company-owned office, thus releasing the ticket agent to devote full time to his regular duties.

The consolidation is also a move to reduce expenses.

Arlington Heights has been serving Palatine for about 6 weeks, and Des Plaines took over the Mount Prospect office 2 months ago.

Rate changes for Chicago and North Western railway fares effective July 25 did not change the fare between Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and the Chicago Loop. The only change is in minimum fare between stations. Train rates between Palatine, Arlington Heights, and Mount Prospect and Des Plaines, for example, are now 25 cents for one way and 50 cents for round trip.

Civic Association

Board of directors of the Forest River Home Owner's Civic association appointed Mrs. Cora Miske to replace Dorothy Karnuth, who tendered her resignation at the last directors' meeting.

Forest River Church

Missionary-elect The Rev. Jack McDonald will be guest speaker at evening worship this coming Sunday. Mr. McDonald was pastor of the Grace Bible church in Elmhurst and has given up his pastorate to go to South America. He will furnish special music next Sunday night as he plays the trumpet.

The annual Sunday school picnic isn't far off now — it has been set for August 20. The menu plans are about the same as in past years — each family brings a covered dish in the pot luck manner, and the Sunday School furnishes hot dogs, soda pop and ice cream. Games have been planned for all age groups. The married men and the single men will have their traditional ball game. There will be an interesting speaker. Everybody is welcome.

Miss Ruth Pierson and Miss Jean Dick scheduled a splash party for the girls in their Sunday school classes last Saturday. The girls left the church at 1:30 p.m. with their swim suits and picnic lunch and headed north. They stopped at sand bar up near Antioch and had their splash party there. After an enjoyable time in the water they roasted hot dogs on the beach and purchased soda pop and dessert at a nearby refreshment stand. Included among those able to go last Saturday were Janet Sandquist, Elaine Hanson, Marlene Olson, Kathy Kirste and Bid LeVine.

Congratulations to Emert and Lola Ros on the birth of their son, Daniel Dean. He was born August 1 at the Swedish Covenant hospital and weighed 6 pounds 13 ounces. He was welcomed home last Sunday by his brother, Stephen, and sister, Deborah.

Community News

Don LeVine is back home from about a week's stay at the St. Frances hospital in Evanston. He was caught between a jeep and a tractor on the golf course at Chevy Chase, and his right leg was badly injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lilja and their children, Stephen and Nancy, are back from a 2-week camping trip in Wisconsin. They spent the first week in Brunet island and the second week at Devil's lake, Baraboo. They lived in their tent and did all their cooking outdoors. They visited Mrs. Lilja's grandparents and enjoyed a lot of swimming.

Barbara Zschack is home from severa days' visit with her friend, Caroline Voss of Leyden township. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Voss with their children, Caroline and Robert, drove Barbara home last week and stayed on for several days' visit with the Zschacks. On a trip to Brookfield zoo taken during the visit they especially enjoyed the children's zoo. When the Voss family left for home, they took Patricia Zschack with them for a visit.

A farewell party was held for the Kenneth Karnuths at the home of C. W. Flink on Westgate last Saturday night. The guests arrived early for a pot luck supper and settled down to several good games of charades later in the evening. Included among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Badalamenti, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Broberg, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanson, Irwin Phar, Norman Lagerholm and Mrs. Iva Nipper and Miss Idyl Nipper.

The Karnuths will be leaving for Florida in the next week or so. They have taken an active part in community affairs in the last several years. Mr. Karnuth was a member of the school board where he served on the building commitee and the finance committee. Mrs. Karnuth was vice president, program chairman and health chairman of the PTA last year, and a cook in the Feehanville lunchroom. She was a coleader in the girl scouts and secretary of the north neighborhood girl scouts in Des Plaines. She served on the board of directors of the Civic association and was the secretary for the organization. She has worked with the Child's Health conference, the children's Christmas party, and has helped out at school parties and on field trips. Our loss is Florida's gain, as they will be valuable citizens of any area they settle in.

Bobby and Betty, the Broberg twins, just returned from a week's vacation at their uncle's farm in Richton Park, Ill. They had a wonderful time there, swimming, riding horses and playing with cousins who are of about the same age.

Charlotte Deering has been using crutches for the last several weeks, as a result of a bad gash in her foot received when she was walking across the dam. She was rushed to the doctor at the time it happened and had many stitches put in the wound. It is healing nicely, and she will soon be able to dispense with the crutches.

Friends and neighbors are extending sympathy to Mrs. Efren Ostos, whose sister, Mrs. Hattie Carlson of Minneapolis, died July 18 after a long illness. Mrs. Ostos stayed with her sister the week before she died and stayed on for the funeral.

Congratulations to Earl White on Rand road on his approaching marriage to Barbara Roeske of Arlington Heights. They will be married on November 26.

A warm welcome to 2 new neighbors in our community — the Mehans and the Sternbergs. Mr. and Mrs. John Mehan moved here from Chicago. They have 3 children, Donald, who is 20, Fay, who is 13, and Leonard, who is 10. Fay and Leonard will be attending St. James school in Arlington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Sternberg on River road moved here from Northbrook. They have 3 children, John, who will be in first grade at Feehanville, Arthur, who is 3 years old, and Kenneth, who is 2 years old. Mr. Sternberg is a truck driver for a building material corporation and has stock cars as a hobby.

Child Health conference will be held at the Forest River Community hall Tuesday at 9 a.m.

Alfred and Marge Debias and daughter, Penny, of Cleveland, came for a day's visit with the Charles Badalamentis on Foundry road last week Saturday.

Birthday greetings this week go to Paul Badalamenti Jr., who was 1 year old on August 6, Paul Hartwig, who was 7 on August 7, and Peter Wilming, who was 9 on August 10.

The John Beckers on Bonnie Brae had a birthday celebration last week Sunday for their son, Danny. About 30 friends came and had a wonderful time.

The Cardinals have been an off-and-on team all summer in the Prospect Heights Little League. Capable of beating any team in the league, the Cards are a hustling bunch of youngsters with plenty of smiles for the photographer.

Another Soil Conservation Service Cooperators Story

by EDMUND ROHLWING

I am the 14th cooperator of the North Cook county soil conservation district and now I am honored to be one of the directors.

Since I worked out my conservation farm plan with the help of the technician I figured I could get better rotations and better crop yields, and especially correct erosion.

After following my plan I feel a plan can be worked for any type and kind of farming.

NORTH COOK soil conservation district has helped me with drainage problems which fit in as part of a good plan, and also erosion problems. It is all part of the plan, drainage cannot be corrected without first correcting the cause. It all works together.

I have followed the pasture improvement to provide for more and better feed over a long period of time. I have also done some contouring in strips on the steeper slopes. This way a gully cannot get started on the hillside.

Last year my yields were increased by about 20 per cent.

I WOULD RECOMMEND it to all landowners because each farm has erosion problems or drainage or both and would increase yields by understanding your soils and using rotations accordingly.

I feel it is important for everyone to be interested in soil and water conservation to save this top soil for future generations.

It will help the schools, churches and communities when the farmers are more prosperous.

Some of the major problems in my area are soil erosions and some farmers have poor crop rotations.

I DO NOT THINK that a conservation farm plan is just for those on steep or rolling land because heavy rains can compact the soil and flat land and cause a drainage problem. This depends on soil type. A Conservation Farm Plan can help the small farmer as well as the large one.

Landowners can be helped by signing up with the North Cook soil conservation district and working out a plan with the assistance of the farm planner or technician. If you have a tenant then both of you work out a plan together with the planner, one which will encourage better working relationship between owner and operator.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

God's inexhaustible goodness and abundance will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" which will be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday, August 14.

Bible passages will include the admonition of Christ Jesus with regard to man's sustenance: "And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Luke 12:29-31).

Also emphasizing the importance of looking to Soul, God, rather than to mammon for happiness, a correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (60:29-31): "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind, and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul."

Asserts Strike Zone Smaller American Loop Than National

There's only one regulation in the major leagues governing the strike zone. But is it observed the same in both leagues? If not, says The Sporting News, then why not?

There's been controversy from time to time over how umpires see the strike zone in the American League and how they see it in the National. The controversy was stirred up again recently by the veteran pitcher Jim Wilson, who went from the National League Braves to the American League Orioles. The American League, Wilson said, has a smaller strike zone.

WILSON SAID his first few games with the Orioles were a nightmare. "I'd get the ball where I was sure it was a strike," he said, "but the umpires would call it a ball."

Wilson was sincere about it. "In the American League," he told The Sporting News, "the umpires seem to take a good four inches away from you at the top of the zone and several inches at the bottom. In the National League, any high pitch over the plate and beneath a batter's armpits is a strike. But in the American, umpires will call a ball on you if you have the ball more than three or four inches above the batter's belt."

The rule defining the strike zone is a simple one. It reads like this: "The strike zone is that space over home plate which is between the batter's armpits and the top of his knes when he assumes his natural stance."

Yes, simple enough but people don't see things the same way any more than they will all agree that a joke is funny or that a certain girl should be Miss America.

AMERICAN LEAGUE president Will Harridge refuses to be bothered over the strike zone controversy. "We have always instructed our umpires that in calling strikes they be governed solely by the playing rules," he told The Sporting News. "The definition of the strike zone is very clear, and the umpires are told to follow that definition."

Col. Hubbard, supervisor of American League umpires, believes the whole thing is a tempest in a teapot. Umpires in both leagues, he said, have the same identical rule to follow, and the only possible variance would be in an individual umpire's judgment. "In four World Series, four All-Star games, and hundreds of exhibition games," Hubbard said, "when I worked with National League umpires, I failed to see any difference in their calling balls and strikes."

Well, the matter probably will never be settled to everyone's satisfaction. But that's the fun of baseball — something for rabid fans to argue about.

IS VETERAN Umpire Cal Hubbard right? Well, veteran Pitcher Jim Konstanty, who was sold to the Yankees by the Phillies last year, strings along with Wilson. He says he has found the American League strike zone to be smaller. But Marty Marion, White Sox manager, who was in the National League until 1951, says he has never noticed any diference.

That just about leaves us where we started. The best way to end this is to steal a George Gobel — "So there you are." (Sp

TAX FACTS

By George T. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Members of the recent "spendingest" General Assembly were lavish with the taxpayers' money in voting salary increases for public officials and public employees, including their own, the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois stated.

The 20% salary increase for the legislators themselves, from $5,000 to $6,000 a year, was vetoed by Governor Stratton. Also vetoed were bills to increase the salary of the Cook county state's attorney from $17,000 to $22,000, and salary increases for court reporters in circuit, superior and city courts, and for clerks of appellate courts. A salary increase for state employes, apparently passed, was nullified because of a legislative fluke.

THE DIRECTOR and assistant director of the department of aeronautics, superintendent of department reports, chairman and members of the parole board, and state mine officers were given substantial salary increases. Salary of the Illinois supreme court reporter was increased from $10,000 to $12,000, and clerks of appellate court judges were given a $400 raise downstate, $600 in Cook.

County superintendents of schools were given a $1500 a year raise. Salaries were increased also for assistant county superintendents. County board members were authorized to boost their own pay up to $12 per day and were given an increase in travel allowance from 7½ cent to 10 cent a mile. Maximum salaries of county probation officers and county veteran commission superintendents and secretaries were boosted substantially.

THE MINIMUM pay of assessors in townships under 14,000 population was raised from $5 to $8 per day. County boards were given power to fix salaries of county assessors and county supervisors of assessments with no statutory limitation. Trustees of villages of less than 60,000 were given a pay boost from $5 to $10 a day. Salaries of election commissioners in Chicago were jumped from $9,000 to $12,000, and provision was made for pay raises for chief and assistant chief clerks in other cities, particularly those between 100,000 and 200,000 population.

Because there were so many more important bills at the legislative session, the taxpayers' federation didn't have the research staff to work on these pay increase bills too, which means that nobody did, George Mahin, federation executive secretary, concluded.

Little League Mothers Game

Even if you don't especially care for baseball, you will be missing one of the outstanding events of the year if you don't turn out next Sunday for the game to be played between teams composed of mothers of the Rolling Meadows Little Leaguers. With their sons' baseball caps on their heads, and their sons' baseball shoes on their feet (if they fit, that is!) the women will attire themselves in shorts and pedal pushers for the big contest. The 2 teams of mothers will be caled the "Eages" and "Hawks" and will be under the management of A. Haase and Harry Smith. The game will be played on the Little League field at Kirchhoff rd. and Meadow drive. Preceding the mothers' game will be the first game of the scheduled double-header. At 12:30 p.m. a team composed of the 12-year-old graduates of the Little League will face the Rolling Meadows Pony League team. Following that game at approximately 2:30 p.m. the mothers will take to the field.

There will be a car parade throughout the city starting at 11 a.m. announcing the 2 big games. There will be hot dogs, ice cream bars and Pepsi-Coa on hand for the hungry and thirsty among the spectators. Since the operation of these concessions usually falls upon the Little League mothers who will be busy on the field in their game, extra volunteers are being sought to oprate the stands. If you would like to lend your assistance to this outstanding event which is designed to raise extra funds for the Rolling Meadows Little League you are invited to call Lola Kolb at Clearbrook 3-7276.

Welcome World

The absence of Alderman Wing Groves at the city council meeting Tuesday night, August 2, was happily excused by all of his fellow Council members as that was the night little Susan Marie Groves arrived in this world. Resurrection hospital, Chicago, was the arrival point for the latest addition and Susan Marie registered a weight of 7 pounds 6½ ounces at her birth. Compared to her older sisters, Mary Irene, 3½, and Kathy Ann, 19 months, Suzy looks mighty little. Although Ginger and baby Suzy arrived home from the hospital last Saturday, it will be a couple of weeks before Suzy's older sisters get a chance to see her as they are visiting with their grandparents in Springfield for a short while. The Groves family has just recently moved from their home at 2207 Campbell st. (which is now the new city hall) to their new home in unit 7 at 3511 Campbell. Wing Groves is well known to the community as he is currently serving as one of the city's first aldermen and last year worked very hard as president of the Home Owner's association. Ginger is a former officer of the Junior Womans club and, of course, is my right hand with the column and my faithful "sub" whenever called upon to write the Rolling Meadows News.

Little Jackie Hildebrand, who is just 18 months old himself, hasn't quite discovered the advantages of a new baby brother—yet. It won't be long though before Jackie will be the biggest booster alive for his brother, William Laird, who was born August 1. The baby is the second son of John and Ellie Hildebrand of 2310 Park st. He tipped the scales at 6 pounds 3 ounces on his arrival at Mt. Sinai hospital in Chicago. Mother Ellie and baby Bill are now at home in Rolling Meadows, and are welcoming their many friends and neighbors who are coming to see the new family addition.

August 7 will surely go down as a real "red letter" day for Fred and Dorothea Griesman of 2605 George st. The first and most important event of the day was the arrival Sunday morning of the Griesmans' new son, a truly bouncing baby boy who tipped the scales at 8 pounds 10 ounces. Robert Wayne, as he has been named by his pround parents, will arrive home with his mother from Resurrection hospital in Chicago today. Sunday afternoon at the special "Mom's Day" Little League double-header, Dorothea Griesman was chosen as the "honor mother" for the Cubs team. A beautiful orchid corsage was presented to her by the Little League organization and her 9-year-old son, Mike. The corsage, which was later brought to her in the hospital, was accepted for her by her popular 12-year-old daughter, Melody. The finish to a perfect day for the Griesman family came when young Mike, who had been in a batting slump of late, made a solid hit during the Sunday game.

Pot Luck Supper

So many residents of Meadow drive go to the Community church in Rolling Meadows they have banded together to sponsor the Saturday night pot luck supper this week. They are inviting everyone in the community. All you need is the intention to have a good time with your neighbors, your own silverware for your family, and one hot dish, or salad or dessert. Coffee, milk, rolls and butter will be supplied at the dinner. From past experience you will also need a good appetite to enjoy all the good food the women of Rolling Meadows are so adept in preparing. The dinner will start at 6 p.m. at the Barn. Following the pot luck supper will be movies as well as other forms of recreation for young and old—a volleyball game, horseshoes, medicine ball and many others.

Visitors

West Richfield, Ohio, is gradually moving to School drive. Last week Jeannette and Doug Douglas of 2307 School drive entertained Doug's twin brother, Don, and his family from there. This week another brother and his family visited Rolling Meadows. They were Bill and Carol Douglas and their children, Becky and Wayne. West Richfield will seem pretty quiet again for Becky and Wayne after their fun-filled visit with their Rolling Meadows cousins, David, Debbie and Beverly.

Ray and Nora Walker of 2400 Park st. have a welcome house guest staying with them. She is Nora's mother, Mrs. J. Benjamin of Modesto, Calif. The happiest Park st. residents over the visit are, without doubt, Don Walker and his younger sister, Bev, 10 and 7 years old respectively, who have not seen their much-loved grandmother in 2 years.

A distinguished visitor is presently honoring Rolling Meadows. Gretchen and Bi White of 2507 Sigwalt st. are currently entertaining Bi's father, Abiathar White Sr. of Taunton, Mass. Unfortunately for Mr. White, part of the entertainment consists of painting the White house of all colors (you guessed it!) —white! The White children, Drusilla and Jack, are happy to have their grandfather on hand for all those typically good grandchildren reasons! The senior Mr. White, as well as Bi and his young son, Jack, are direct descendants of William White, one of the Mayflower stalwarts. Seems like a long way from Plymouth to Rolling Meadows, but the same civic spirit seems to prevail in the White family today with Bi serving as a city alderman and Gretchen acting as the president of the Palatine PTA.

That good-looking and practical trailer in the vicinity of 2301 St. James st., this past week has come a long way in its trip to Rolling Meadows. Visiting Roy and Nadine Cranmer here are Roy's sister and her famiy, Catherine and Myrle Priddis and their children, Sherry and David. The Priddis family made the long trip to Rolling Meadows from Merced, Cal., in their trailer. The Cranmer children, April, Melvin and Susan, can't decide now whether it's more fun having their cousins visit them or investigating the exciting trailer.

The record for the most company this past week easily goes to Harry and Fran Johnson of 2203 Park st. The Johnsons with their children, Denny, 14, Kenny, 12, Mary Ann, 4, and Lenny, 3, have had their niece, Carol Johnson, 11, visiting them from Chicago. They have also had Fran's sister and her family from Loveland, Ohio, visiting them. They are Bernice and Charles Jetter and their children, Linda, Gary and Greg. Also on hand for the happy family visit was Fran's brother, Pfc. Raymond Smyk of the marines, who is spending part of his 20 day leave here. He is currently stationed in California—making the trails of the Johnson company trace to all parts of the country.

An exhibit at the Conrad Hilton hotel is what has brought the company to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Beyer at 2900 South court. Their guests are Mr. Beyer's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beyer of Boyd, Minn. They are here for the National Fishing Tackle show, and their nets with adjustable handles are one of the favorite exhibits to be found at the show.

Baby Shower

A "long-distance" baby shower was the exciting event held July 22, at the home of Jean Schinkowsky of 2904 South court. The shower was held in honor of Jean's sister, Mrs. George Schwartz, who is presently living in Pensacola, Fla. Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Schinkowsky are the former Joyce and Jean Brinkman, the daughters of Arlington Park race track superintendent and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brinkman of Rohlwing rd. Co-hostess for the shower was Mrs. Hazel Brinkman of Palatine, Mrs. Schwartz' sister-in-law. Twenty-two people were present at the unusual shower where each guest brought her gift unwrapped for display to the others present. All of the gifts were then wrapped, and packed for mailing to Mrs. Schwartz in Pensacola the following day.

Softball League

The active Rolling Meadows Softball League continues with their fun-filled and surprisingly interesting games. Further interest in the league has been heightened lately by the announcement of the first annual picnic for the players and their families September 11. The outing will be held at Fox River Grove, and a really outstanding time has been promised for everyone, particularly the children.

The latest scores for the teams indicate the caliber of the games being played, and the variance possible in the final outcome. South st. was victorious over Wing st. by a score of 23 to 8; Sigwalt st. defeated Campbell st. in a tight game of 16 to 15; Bluebird lane was victorious over Sigwalt st. by 13 to 10. Smarting from their defeat to Sigwalt st., Campbell st. turned around last week and defeated South st. by a score of 24 to 9. Sparked by the outstanding hitting of Joe Stapleton the Wing st. team then defeated their rivals Bluebird lane last Sunday by a score of 21 to 19.

Current league standings are:

	Won	Lost
Sigwalt Street	7	2
Campbell Street	6	4
Bluebird Lane	5	4
Wing Street	4	6
South Street	2	8

Mom's Day Credits

Although all workers in the outstanding Mom's day double-header played last Sunday deserve front-page mention space just does not permit printing all of their names there. Special mention and thanks from the Little League organization as well as the entire community should go to team managers and coaches Bill Hickey and Sy Petzel of the Cubs; Al Haase, Art Nyblin and John Mazanet for the White Sox; Joe Wrenn and Jim Kinnard for the Cardinals; and Bob Kreutz and George Mahoney for the Braves. Particular appreciation is also due Joseph Meyer, cousin of Joel Meyer of George st., who supplied the beautiful orchid corsages at no cost through his company the Royal Hawaiian Orchid company. Naturally, president Fred Schultz Jr. of the Little League deserves extra credit for the inception and carrying through of the idea of the special day in honor of the Little League mothers. Thanks is also due to Joel Meyer the official announcer and master of ceremonies for the day, as well as Paul Williams, who assisted Joel in announcing the second game. Rudy Grimm acted as official scorekeeper, and he was assisted in the second game by John Seeley. Field decorations and general work were accomplished through the efforts of Ken and Leona Gobeyn, Art Henne and Earl Kolb. A group of Little League mothers were responsible for the operation of the refreshment stand and the sale of tickets to the pony rides. They were Ann Locascio, Jean Broderick, Sue Kunz, Mary Bialo, Dolores McDonald, Lola Kolb, Nancy Martin, Grace Martin, Eleanor Keller, Lavinia Henrich, Jeannette Douglas, Evelyn Peters, Dolores Rybak, and Lee Haase.

Best Game of Year

A real pitchers' duel with just 1 hit credited to each team was held by the Rolling Meadows Little League last Monday night. Although there have been many really outstanding Little League games space just does not permit the recounting of each one, but when the young boys turn in a score of 1 to 0 it is worthy of print in any paper. That outstanding score was the result of the contest last Monday night between the White Sox and the Cardinals. The winning run, made by lead-off batter, David Martin of the White Sox, was a solid smash to right field, which got through the fielder for the resulting home run. The only other hit of the game was made by Cardinal pitcher, Ron Henricks, in a vain effort to salvage his own ball game. Wayne Wilkans was the 1-hit pitcher for the White Sox. The Cardinals are managed by Joe Wrenn and coached by Red Kinnard, and the White Sox are managed by Al Haase and coached by Art Nyblin and John Mazanet.

Christenings

A christening party for a group of 18 people was the happy climax to the baptism ceremonies held July 31, at the home of Dick and Linda Dewar of 2305 Wing st. The christening was performed for their 3-month-old daughter, Susan Jean, by Rev. Behrens of Faith Lutheran church in Arlington Heights. Godparents for the baby girl were Jean Caselli of Northbrook (baby Susan Jean's namesake) and Bob Brady of Northfield.

Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Heights was the site of the baptism of Kenneth Alan Geimer, the 5-week-old son of Terry and Ray Geimer of 2301 Wing st. July 24. The christening was performed by Father O'Hara, pastor of the church, at 2 p.m. in the afternoon. Acting as godparents for the baby were Virginia Geimer, Ray's cousin, and Donald Finn, Terry's brother. A christening party was held at the Geimer home following the church services. On hand for the important celebration were many friends and relatives including the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finn and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Geimer of Chicago.

The important christening of their first daughter was held by Jack and Dorothy Thompson of 2504 Sigwalt st. last Sunday. Baby Carol was baptized last Sunday, August 7, at Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Heights. The christening service was performed by Father O'Hara, pastor of the church, at 2 p.m. Godparents for the baby girl were Eileen and Jim Coursey of Morton Grove. A special party buffet in honor of the event was held Sunday at the Thompson home. Joining the party were the baby's grandmother Schovain and uncle Chuck of Evanston, and her other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Fremont st. in Rolling Meadows. Also on hand were the baby's aunts, uncle and cousins, Mrs. Neal and her children, Patty and Bobby, also of Fremont st., and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson of Harvey.

Home Owners' Association

More and more outstanding events are being scheduled for the coming second annual Rolling Meadows outing sponsored by the Home Owners' association to be held September 4 at Deer Grove. A clown has been promised to the children, as well as the Pepsi-Cola Carousel. There will be balloons and suckers on hand for all children, too! The picnic will be restricted this year to association members, and residents are reminded dues to the association are only $2 per year with a $1 initiation fee for new members. Delivery of your membership card which will entitle your family to attend the picnic as well as the forthcoming fall dance will be made to your own home. A simple telephone call to Helen Macior at Clearbrook 5-0933 or Eleanor Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840, will bring a representative of the Home Owners' association to your door.

Anniversary Celebration

A coffee and cake get-together was the anniversary celebration held by Eda and Henry Hofmann of 2708 George court in honor of their 34th wedding anniversary last Friday. The party also honored Eda's birthday. Joining the double-celebration party were their son and daughter-in-law, Richard and Pat Hofmann, as well as their George court neighbors, Gil and Zella Blanco, Wally and Lorraine Schoenfeld, Sis Perry and Ves and Chuck McNerney.

For All Masons

A response of about 30 master Masons has been received to the recent invitation to get together printed in this coumn. It is hoped that even more response will be had each succeeding week. If you are a master Mason in good standing the organizing group would like to welcome you to their contemplated first meeting soon. Won't you call Clearbrook 3-8346 or Clearbrook 5-1282 to leave your name. You may be sure your brother Masons will be happy to learn of your presence in the city. Much good for the community and a great deal of good fellowship can be gained from the organization of such a group.

Minor League

A welcome has been extended by the minor league organization of the Little League to Paul Bicholtz of 2109 Robin lane. Paul, who is well known in the area for his work with children, has volunteered to assist the minor league in their practice sessions Wednesday and Saturday mornings.

Recovering

The entire city will be happy to earn that little Ellen Sue Byrnes, the 2-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Byrnes of 2407 Robin lane, has been returned to her home from Garfield hospital. You will recall that it became necessary to summon the Arlington Hts. pulmotor squad last week to revive the tiny infant, and following their successful operation the little girl was returned to the hospital. She is now home and doing well.

New Parents

Don't look now, but there are 4 new mothers, and all of them live on George court. They are Zella Blanco, Pat Hofman, Sis Perry and Linda Tyl, and they are all mothers of 4-week-old males — male puppies, that is! The appeal of the first little pup just couldn't be resisted by the others, and you can see what happened!

Accident Victims

That pale look on the face of Herb Wolff last Friday had really good cause. Herb, who lives with his wife, Marion, at 2401 Sigwalt st., was a passenger on the Northwest Airlines plane landing at Midway Airport on a flight from Minneapolis which narrowly missed a tragic crash when it plummeted through the fence on its landing. Herb helped many of the other passengers to safety with no thought for himself, and the real feeling of nervousness and fear did not set in until he was safely home in Rolling Meadows and realized what might have happened.

Another near accident was narrowly averted by a Kirchhoff rd. resident last week when a motorcyclist hit one of the many (and we do mean many) holes in Kirchhoff rd. The cyclist was thrown from his motorcycle directly in the path of an on-coming truck, followed by a Rolling Meadows car. Fortunately both the car and truck were able to miss the young man, who refused all offers of assistance to a hospital in his speed to reach Wisconsin. We wonder how long the holes on Kirchhoff rd. must remain there to encourage incidents of this type, or if the county or the builder cannot be encouraged to do something at least temporarily.

The accident which befell Leo Plinske of Chicago 2 weeks ago unfortunately was not averted. Mr. Plinske had been helping his son-in-law, Edward Kobiella, of Fremont st. in the construction of his new garage. He suddenly fell to the ground from the roof, landing directly on his back. He was rushed by his son-in-law and daughter, Janet, to Dr. Kleompken in Arlington Heights, and from his office to Resurrection hospital in Chicago. It was found there he had cracked a vertebrae, and it would be necessary to wear a special brace for 6 weeks. The Kobiella family has expressed their sincere thanks to their many friends and neighbors who have given them offers of assistance and sympathy since the tragic mishap.

Pajama Party

Moving to Rolling Meadows separated Mary Kay Kunz of 2800 Campbell st. from her lifelong friend and school chum, Cecilia Honet, of Chicago. You can well imagine the "catching up" on talk which went on recently when Cecilia visited her old friend here. In honor of her visit, Mary Kay held a pajama party last Saturday night. On hand for the party fun were Barbara and Gail Lapinski of 2500 Fremont st., who thoroughly enjoyed meeting Cecilia and the fun they had that entire night.

Hospitalized

The many friends of Dolores and Howard Reinberger of 2712 Dove st., will be unhappy to learn that Howard underwent a second emergency operation last Friday at Michael Reese hospital. For the first time in many months Howard had apparently been feeling very good and recovering at home from his recent operation, when a sudden severe attack due to adhesions and the twisting of the bowel caused his sudden return to the hospital and the surgeon's knife last week. Howard is now apparently recovering very well, but his stay in the hospital is feared to be indefinite now until absolute recuperative progress is shown. Howard is the brother of Shirley Hahn of Bluebird lane, and the brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vreeland of South st. Why not send him a card to let him know he has the best wishes of the community? He is at the Michael Reese hospital, Room 532, 29th st. and Ellis ave., Chicago.

Dorothy Weber of 2501 Robin lane has returned to her Rolling Meadows home after a 3-day stay in St. Francis hospital in Evanston. Dorothy spent the 3 days undergoing tests for a back disorder, tests which unfortunately were unsuccessful as to the finding of a cure.

Lutheran Church News

Pot Luck Supper

All church friends and members are urged to circle the date of August 14, on their calendar. That is the night which has been set aside for the pot luck supper in honor of Varnes Stringer, vicar of Immanuel Lutheran church in Palatine, and William Bartels, vicar of St. Peters Lutheran church in Arlington Heights. The 2 vicars were very materially helpful to the organization of the church here in Rolling Meadows and will soon be returning to school. Everyone interested in the Lutheran church in Rolling Meadows is invited to attend. The Lutheran Ladies group will supply the food for the dinner. Everyone should be sure to bring their own silverware.

Lutheran Ladies Meeting

The meeting held July 26 at the home of Rose Roessler of 2100 Wing st. was successful. Co-hostess for the meeting was Melita Weider of 2400 School drive. Guests at the meeting were Ray Walker and Ruby Yurtis of the Community church in Rolling Meadows who were present to expain the contemplated cooperative youth council it was hoped would be formed in the community. The Lutheran Ladies group elected to participate in this very worthwhile activity and Betty Beck and Shirley Fogarty were appointed to represent the group at the youth council. The next meeting of the Lutheran Ladies group will be held August 23 at the home of Lorraine Zographos of 2402 Fremont st. Acting as cohostess for the meeting will be Shirley Fogarty.

Barbershoppers Attention

The most enthusiastic Rolling Meadows member of the Arlington Heights Barbershop Quartette organization is without doubt Don Hoppock of Eastman st. The Arlington Heights group will sing as part of the chorus at the Chicagoland Music Festival this month down in Soldier Field in Chicago. The regular meetings of the Arlington Heights group are held each Monday night at the Arlington Hts. field house starting in September. If you like to sing, you are invited to attend the meetings of the group. A call to Don Hoppock at Clearbrook 3-4924 will bring you any additional information you may desire.

Vacationing

A chest full of ribbons was the proud possession of Sherlyn and Darlene Johnson on their recent return from the Baptist Conference Camp in Round Lake. Sherlyn won 3 ribbons—first place for badminton and ping-pong and second place for horseshoes. She also won a Bible for being the best Senior Camper of the week. Her sister, Darlene, won a ribbon for her neat cabin. The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Johnson of 2311 Wilke rd. They were accompanied on their camp trip by Bunny Olson the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olson of 2401 Eastman st.

Los Angeles, Calif., is the home of the current visitor at the home of Marion and Mike Garrity of 2200 Bluebird lane. The visitor is Marion's sister, Mrs. Lillian Byrne. In honor of Mrs. Byrne's visit the Garritys, with their children, Karin, 7, and Kim, 5, took a trip to Eagle Harbor, Mich., where they visited Marion's father, A. Lind. The pleasant trip was fun for the entire group, who are only sad that Mrs. Byrne's visit will be over soon when she flies to Minneapolis to meet her husband.

It was Silver Lake, Wis., near Antioch for the vacation of young Billy Croutch, son of Bill and Lorraine Croutch of Bluebird lane. Billy spent a pleasant vacation at the summer home of his grandparents in the company of his grandmother Willard and uncle Bill ("Doc"). The visit to the pleasant lake was ended by the arrival of Bill and Lorraine, with their daughter, Karin and Billy's grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Croutch, who traveled to the Wisconsin resort to bring their vacationing family back to Rolling Meadows.

It was a tour through Iowa, the Wisconsin Dells and the Cave-of-the-Mounds which highlighted the recent vacation of a Rolling Meadows family. They are LaVerne and Stanley Dul of 2207 Park st. Also enjoying the trip were their 4 children—Mike, 2, Arlene, 4, Diane, 5½, and Pat, 7½.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

Lucy and Keith Holden and their young 10-year-old son, Peter, will not soon forget their 3,000 mile vacation tour. The Holden family is now happily back in their Rolling Meadows home at 2106 Eastman st. Their eastern tour took them through Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine as well as New York and many other spots. Touring was not the entire purpose of the trip, however, as several visits to friends and relatives were included on the agenda.

Her first plane ride has just been completed by Mrs. Effie Hoppock of 2313 Eastman st. The important plane trip was made from Chicago to Blandford, Mass., to the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings. The Massachusetts city is located near Springfied. Mrs. Hoppock plans to visit in the east for about 5 weeks, and she is already sorely missed by her Rolling Meadows family—Don and Mary Hoppock and their children, Patty and Linda.

Berkeley, Mich., was the vacation destination of Vivian and Joe Murawski of 2704 Fremont st. That city was not the stopping point for the Murawski children, however, who went on a 5 day camping trip with their grandfather to Owosso, Mich. The Murawski family visited Vivian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hansen in Berkeley, and Grandfather Hansen really made young Eddie, 8, and Billy, 5, happy with the fun-filled camping trip. Also included on the trip agenda for Vivian and Joe, who were also accompanied by their little daughter, was a trip to Royal Oaks, Mich., where they visited other friends and relatives.

The perfect vacation for those on a limited travel budget is the enthusiastic report given on their return by Betty and Dale Bycroft of George st. A real outdoor camping trip was taken by Betty and Dale in the beautiful northern woods of Wisconsin and Minnesota. The delightful drive up the North Shore of Lake Superior was particularly enjoyed by their young daughters, Beverly and Carol, who accompanied their parents on the outstanding vacation tour.

Miami, Fla., was only the starting point for an exciting vacation trip of Mildred McCormick of 2306 Campbell st. and her friend, Mildred Schattnik, of Chicago. The women motored to Miami via Warm Springs, Ga., where they visited the Little White House of the late President Roosevelt. They also stopped at St. Augustine and Marineland on the Florida fabulous east coast. Flying from Miami to Havana, Cuba, for a 3-day visit, they saw a sugar-cane plantation, a cock fight, a perfume factory, distillery, Morro Caste, Capitol Building of Cuba, Tropicana Night club, and highlighted their visit with the attendance at mass at the Holy Angels church. While there they met Pilar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGovern of 2909 Wilke rd., who was visiting relatives in her native city of Havana. Pila entertained the 2 lucky women at El Florida club, known as the "Cradle of the Daiquiri." After flying back to Miami, the 2 young women saw the popular Hialeah race track. Stopping at Silver Springs and the beautiful Stephen Foster Memorial in White Springs, the girls returned from a vacation that saw them travel a distance of 3,260 miles by land and 400 air miles.

Girl Scouts

The transfer of her husband back to their former home in Newark, N. J., has necessitated the resignation of neighborhood chairman Irene Sharples. Irene will be sorely missed in this important post as she has had considerable girl scout organizing experience and has been very successful in the forming of the Rolling Meadows girl scout movement. Serving as temporary neighborhood chairman until someone else can be trained for the work will be Lorraine Van Wazur. Ruthmary Zupan will take over as troop organizer, working almost exclusively in the organizing of the much-needed new troops for fall. Many more adult workers are needed for girl scout work, and if you are able to help in even the most minor way, you are asked to please contact Mrs. Van Wazur at Clearbrook 3-8614. The first neighborhood council meeting has been scheduled for September, and further official notice will be given to all adult members.

Residents of the community are asked to remember the coming girl scout finance drive which will be held this year by the Rolling Meadows group independently of the Palatine council with whom they cooperated in the drive last year. Chairmanship of the drive in Rolling Meadows has been assumed by Bi White, who always manages to find time to help worthy organizations in spite of his many duties with the city council.

Birthday Party

His fourth birthday was the important event celebrated by young Johnny Thompson of 2504 Sigwalt st. Johnny is the son of Jack and Dorothy Thompson. The gala party was held August 3, and the real highlight for Johnny was the present given him by his 18-month-old brother, Andrew—a group of no less than 15 plastic cars. On hand for the happy celebration were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Fremont st. and Mrs. Schovian of Evanston. Also joining the party were his uncles, aunts and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schovian and their children, Susan, Freddy, Joan, Donna and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schovian and their daughters, Pamela and Sharon, Mrs. Neal and her children, Patty and Bobby, and his uncle Chuck and aunt Pat.

New PTA Chairman

Since her election to the post of president of the entire Palatine School District PTA necessitated her resignation, the post of chairman of the Kimball Hill PTA Unit formerly held by Gretchen White has been vacant. That condition has been happily corrected now by the official appointment of Lois Hvid of Oriole lane. The appointment was made last Thursday evening at the PTA board meeting held at the Oak Street school in Palatine. The PTA board meeting incidentally, was the first one to be presided over by Gretchen White, who was happy to have the moral support of Mrs. Hvid for the important meeting.

Landscaping

Residents of the many "courts" found in Rolling Meadows might well note the beautiful landscaping job done on South court by the residents there. The center of the curved drive is filled with beautiful cana lilies, salvias and grass, and the entire project is maintained by all of the residents of the court. They are Donald and Marge Beyer, Paul and Shirley Lehmann, Jean and Earl Schinkowsky, Jean and Jim Clarke, Jack and Lois Huffman, Dick and Irene Worta, Jim Palluck, and Edward and Anna Gunderson.

Reunion

It has been a good many years, but that didn't stop the fun of the reunion recently. When Alva and Bob Higgins of 2005 Kirchhoff rd. were married several years ago, Jackie Nichols served as their ring bearer. At the time Jackie was only 3 years old, but he has now grown to a handsome 17. He is the son of Juanita and Charles Nichols of 2405 Flicker lane. His partner in the long-ago wedding was a 2-year-old beauty, Carole Roberts of Des Plaines. She is now a lovely 16-year-old miss, and a recent visit to the Higgins' home by the Roberts and Nichols families precipitated the reunion of the 2 young people who could scarcely remember one another after all that time.

Cub Scouts

Dance Tickets On the Way

Have you marked October 28 on your calendar? That's the date of the coming cub scout dance which will be held in Fred's Place in Mt. Prospect. The nearby location on Rand rd. near Rte. 83, should make it possible for every Rolling Meadows family to really enjoy the outing. There will be door prizes and refreshments on hand for your enjoyment, and the money made will certainly go to a most worthy cause! Tickets for the gala event will go on sale August 12, and a door-to-door canvass of the entire community will be undertaken. The tickets are only $1 each, or the special price of $2 per couple. Don't forget—when the cub scout representative calls at your home be sure to have your $2 (or even more—why not ask your friends?) handy for the tickets.

A word to the wise—have you thought about baby sitters yet? You'll remember how hard it was to find them during the last all-community dance. You'd better get busy now!

Cub Scout Pot Luck

August 28 is the day! Yes, that's the day of the cub scout pot luck supper for all cub scouts and their families at the Barn. In addition all prospective cub scouts and their parents are particularly urged to attend to meet the many cub scout workers in the community and to discuss their plans for enrolling their boys in the cub scout organization this fall. All families attending the pot luck are urged to bring their own silverware as well as a hot dish, or a dessert, or a salad. You may be sure that all food contributions will be worthwhile. Coffee and milk, rolls and butter will be suppied by the cubbing organization. Don't be late—6 p.m. is the starting time!

Lost and Found

Evelyn and Arnie Launhardt of 2403 Meadow drive have started to feel as though they are conducting a lost and found office. This week 2 beach balls and a child's scooter mysteriously appeared at the Launhardt home. Since little Greg will soon begin to feel the effects of "finders-keepers" it is hoped the owning parties will reclaim their property very soon. A call at Clearbrook 5-0881 will bring you further information about the lost property.

Poker Party

What could be a better excuse for a poker party than the completion of a beautiful screened-in patio? No sooner had the final screen been set in place than Bob Krajci of 2205 Park st. set about making plans for a Saturday night poker party among his male cohorts to properly initiate the spot. On hand for the evening of pinochle, poker and beer last Saturday were Gordon Sheetz, Phil Maher, George Massa and Harry Johnson.

Mayhew, and sister, Carol, drove to El Dorado to pick her up and then went on to visit relatives in Fulton and Mexico, Mo. before returning home Friday evening, August 5. Leaky Faucet Can Put Gas Bill In Hot Water

How much water does a leaky faucet leak, and how much does it cost? Here's the answer, according to the Coleman Heating Institute, Wichita, Kan.:

A 60 - drop - a- minute leak wastes 192 gallons a month. If it's hot water that's dripping away, 480 cubic feet of gas will have been consumed in heating the wasted water. Figure this against your local gas rate, to find out how much it costs.

Ninety drops a minute waste 310 gallons a month and consume 775 cubic feet of gas. One hundred and twenty drops a minute waste 429 gallons, wih extra gas consumption of 1,073 cubic feet.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Welcoming Committee

The welcoming committee called at the homes of 4 families new to the community. The first was Mr. and Mrs. Art Kelter of 401 Larkdale, who were interviewed previously for this column.

Ann and Walter Kazen and their children, Mark and Marcia of Oriole lane were at their house, although it is not yet completed. They hope to move in before the school year begins. Ann and Walter are residents of Chicago's northwest side, where Walter is employed as a printer.

Major John M. Norris, his wife, Mary Jane, and their children, Dwight, Leslie, Anne, and Rodney, are enjoying their new home at 629 Oriole. Former residents of Pittsburgh, they have made the move to this area following John's transfer to Lincolnwood Armory.

Nora and Ray Roths and their sons, Ray and Marty, arrived recently from Livonia, Mich., which is a suburb of Detroit. They are enthusiastic about their new home at 607 Bob-O-Link. Ray is an employee of Ford Motors at Melrose Park.

Sarah and Daniel Cutrona came to Prospect Meadows from Forest Park and are now living at 428 Bob-O-Link. Dan commutes daily to downtown Chicago.

The entire community extends its heartiest welcome to its new residents.

Baby Talk

Congratulations to Jean and Clint Hefferen. Little Janice Claire checked in at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin July 28. The Hefferens have 2 other children, Jimmie and Joanie.

Congratulations also to Gloria and Cal Campbell. Their third girl, Dawn Susan, arrived August 1 at West Suburban hospital in Oak Park. Dawn weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces, exactly the birth weight of her sister, Debbie. Dianne and Debbie were the most excited children in the neighborhood when Gloria and Cal brought the new baby home Saturday.

North Woods Logging Camp At Entrance Wisconsin State Fair

The entrance to the Wisconsin Conservation Department's exhibit at the Wisconsin State Fair August 20-28 will again beckon fairgoers to come through the "breezeway" of a north woods logging camp and visit a most interesting and refreshing display.

Within the exhibit area will be found living specimens of Wisconsin's wilder citizens. Black bear cubs, white tail deer and fawn, porcupine, beaver, raccoon, skunk (descented), foxes, brush wolf, mink, and our extremely rare mascot, the badger, will all be displayed in surroundings which approximate their natural surroundings.

This year, for the first time, a full-sized lookout cabin will be placed on a tower just 19 feet high, thus making it more safely accessible to the fair visitors. The lookout cabin on this lower tower will contain the same instruments for fire detection as the regular tower, including direction finding equipment and field telephone.

One of the thrills of raising vegetables comes when harvest is collected, after long hours of planting. Intermediate girl scout troop 8 of Arlington Heights includes 4-H work among its activities and will be one of the exhibitors at this week end's 4-H fair at Arlington race track. Searching for good peppers on the green bushes are, left to right, Gail Kurtz, Penny Pennington and Jeannie Koops. —Cameron Photo

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Will you please explain the proper manner of eating soup?

A. Dip the farther edge of the spoon into the soup and direct it away from you and towards the outer edge of the plate. Do not fill the spoon to the brim. Put the side of the spoon, not the point, into the mouth. And remember, no noise while sipping it!

Q. When a marriage engagement has been broken, is the girl entitled to consider the engagement ring as belonging to her?

A. No; she should return the ring.

Q. Is a fruit centerpiece appropriate for a dinner table?

A. This is very good. Be sure, however, that the fruit is fresh-looking.

Q. Is it proper for a woman house guest to offer to help her hostess with her household chores?

A. It is quite proper to make the offer, but not to insist upon it if her hostess seems firmly against it. The guest can show greatest consideration by keeping her own room clean and orderly.

Q. Is it all right for the bridegroom's mother to invite her friends to her son's wedding?

A. She must not do this herself. She may, if she wishes, suggest these names to her son, and he may then pass them on to his fiancee who does the mailing of the invitations.

Q. When one is dining at a club where dancing is included, what should be done with the napkin when arising to dance?

A. Lay it unfolded on the table beside the plate. And the same should be done when leaving the place.

Q. What would be an appropriate letter of appreciation to write to a good friend who was very thoughtful at the time of one's bereavement?

A. Just be very simple and sincere, as, "When Mother passed away, you were very kind, Mrs. Barnes, and I want to thank you. Come to see me when you find time."

Q. Are the best man and the ushers supposed to stand in the receiving line at the wedding reception?

A. No; the bride and bridegroom, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are the only ones who stand in the receiving line.

Q. When a girl stenographer is being introduced to a man in an office, should she rise?

A. No; this is not required.

About Your Health

Each year more deaths occur from heart disease than from any other single cause. The educational committee of the Illinois state medical society states that knowledge and care could reduce deaths from the many illnesses which stem from conditions affecting the heart.

Acting like a pump, the heart circulates the blood through the body. The heart itself is composed of a mass of muscles forming four chambers which receive the blood brought to it from all parts of the body through the veins. This blood is first pumped to the lungs, where it receives fresh oxygen, and goes back to the heart, from which it is again passed out to every part of the body through the arteries.

After it has distributed its oxygen and other essential substances to the individual organs, it is collected into tiny vessels called capillaries, which feed it into the veins and thus back to the heart. The essentials of the circulation of the blood were discovered in 1615 by William Harvey, an English physician.

IN THE HEART there is a series of chambers to let the blood in and out, a procedure systematically controlled by a series of valves. The four chambers of the heart are the right and left ventricles and the right and left auricles. The veins pour the blood into the right side of the heart, from which the ventricle pumps it out to the lungs through the pulmonary artery.

It returns oxygenated from the lungs to the left side of the heart, from which the left ventricle pumps it into the aorta or main artery, which distributes it through the arterial system throughout the body. There are thus four elements in heart action, the correct timing of which is controlled by a nerve "switchboard." Any trouble with the nerve control or any of the four chambers or with the valves which keep the flow going in the proper direction can thus be a source of heart disease.

THE SIX MOST important causes of heart disease are rheumatic fever, which may damage the valve system; high blood pressure, which may overload the heart; sclerosis or hardening of the coronary arteries which supply blood to the heart muscle itself; syphilis, which especially affects the first part of the great artery, the aorta; subacute bacterial endocarditis, due to inflammation of the inner lining membrane and valves of the heart by a germ, streptococcus viridans, and congenital defects, meaning those existing at birth. Other conditions may damage the pericardium or outer covering of the heart.

Thus certain diseases may cause damage, slight or great, to the heart. Among specific heart conditions are angina pectoris, a pain in the chest which sometimes extends down the arm, and caused by interference with the blood supply to the heart muscle; coronary thrombosis or occlusion, caused by a clot of blood forming in a hardened artery to block off the flow of blood to the heart muscle; myocarditis, or inflammation of the muscular walls of the heart, and chronic valvular disease of the heart. Various conditions can be responsible for so-called heart murmurs, or irregular heart beat, interruption of the blood to and from the heart.

Research Conference

Northwestern university technological institute and the American rocket society, with the cooperation of the air research and development command, this month will sponsor the first national conference on gas dynamics, which will attract international representation.

The conference, said Donald H. Loughridge, dean of the Technological institute, will deal with "aerothermochemistry," the science of combustion in high speed gas streams such as may be encountered in rocket motors and jet engines. He said the symposium, to be held at the Technological institute August 22-24, will consider the basic laws of high velocity combustion.

In The Future

A small electric refrigerator for traveling has space of only 1½ cubic feet, but it makes 162 ice cubes if you're entertaining. . . You can buy a wicker bull's head with wooden horns for practice bull-fighting . . . For do-it-yourselfers there is now a kit with chemicals and stencils for etching initials or designs on glass . . . Some Family Workers Specifically Exempt From Social Security

Are you paying social security taxes and reporting employees who are not covered under the law? Some employers, who are the sole owners of businesses, according to Julius Berman, social security northwest district manager, learn after years of reporting that certain family members are not covered by the social security law and no social security taxes should have been paid for them.

The social security act specifically excludes employment by a parent for a son or daughter. Mr. Berman added that employment of a parent by a partnership composed entirely of sons or sons and daughters also is not covered. The other family exclusions under the law are employment of one spouse by the other spouse and the employment by a parent of a son or daughter under age 21. Sons or daughters 21 years of age or older who work for a parent in business are covered by the law.

If the business is a corporation, none of the "family exclusions" apply since the corporation, and not the family member or members, is the employer.

A squad car's pursuit will no longer be advertised in advance to fleeing malefactors if law enforcement agencies adopt a new type of warning signal invented by Commander E. F. McDonald Jr., president of Zenith Radio corporation.

The special feature of McDonald's new revolving squad car warning light is that the signal mechanism is carried convealed in the rear compartment of the car until brought into use at the last moment on making an arrest. Instead of being a permanent "lighthouse on top of the squad car" shouting advance notice to law violators in all directions "here come the cops" the new device would be in evidence only when police wanted it.

Then the touch of a foot button alongside of the accelerator by the officer driving would raise the signal through the rear deck on a hydraulic jack to the height of ordinary revolving lights, above the squad car.

That reasoning holds true even when the farmers are members of Intermediate girl scout troop 8 of Arlington Heights, who are including 4-H work in their activities. At Stephens Selected to serve as a senior sister at Stephens college in Columbia, Mo., during the 1955-56 school year is Miss Patricia Ann Smith, daughter of Mrs. Edward Friedel of 505 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Senior sisters aid the new students in their orientation to campus life, sharing their various experiences in group living. They reside in the residence halls which house the first year students and are available at all times for counseling and comradeship.

At Illinois College

The spring term honor roll for Illinois college, Jacksonville, has been released by the dean's office. Those whose names appear below have receivd only A's and B's during the term, with not more than one C. They maintained a 9.00 or better grade point average, and carried 3 or more units of work.

Students who received more than one C, an incomplete, or any grade lower than a C are entitled to honor roll recognition.

Included in the group was Miss Frances Zollner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zollner, R. 2, Box 278, Ellis ave., Bensenville, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school with the class of 1952. (CC

At Iowa State

A dean's list of outstanding students at Iowa State college for the spring quarter of study has been announced by the college. Included was Donald Waterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waterman, 225 Windsor, Arlington Heights, majoring in chemical engineering.

The deans' list is made up of students who have been in attendance at Iowa State for 3 or more quarters, who carried a full academic load during the spring quarter, and who maintained a 3.5 average throughout that quarter. Under the Iowa State system of grading 4.0 is an "A" average, 3.0 is a "B" average and 2.0 a "C" average.

Judy Ahmer, 203 W. Fremont st., Arlington Heights, is one of 125 high school students who will spend a week at Robert Allerton Park, university of Illinois conference center near Monticello, at an art school organized by the Illinois federation of Women's clubs.

She will attend the second one-week session, August 6-13, going under sponsorship of the Arlington Heights Woman's club, Arlington Heights, of which Mrs. C. A. Hendrickson, 743 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, is president.

Students study design, sketching, and painting under instruction arranged with the University. The park's formal and informal gardens, statuary, landscaping, and natural scenes are the subjects for many excellent pictures. (CC

Dental Care For Vets

Dental outpatient care for veterans, previously provided on a year to year basis under congressional appropriations, now will be provided under permanent legislation signed by the President.

Robert D. Beer, VA's manager for Illinois, said the new law continues all presrent conditions for outpatient dental care except one.

The lone change in the new law removes the time limitation previously required by 2 groups of wartime or Korean veterans in applying for treatment: (1) those whose service-connected noncompensable dental conditions or disabilities resulted from combat wounds or service injuries; and (2) former prisoners of war with service connected noncompensable dental conditions or disabilities.

In the past, these 2 groups of veterans had to apply for treatment within one year after discharge or separation from active service or by December 31, 1954, whichever was later. Under the new law, they may apply at any time. (WUS

Warbride Fathers From France Awaiting Chance For Trip To U.S.

by BILL DILLINGHAM

When the Warbride Fathers club gets together, transatlantic cablegrams generally burn up the wires! Their next reunion is to be held within a few weeks, and already there is talk of new plans for a mass visit to American.

The main function of this group is to maintain the solidarity of the family. In shorter terms, they want to make sure that daughter doesn't forget mama, papa, vin rouge, camembert cheese and La Belle France.

EACH YEAR they hold a congress that is known officially by the attractive title of "Reunion of Franco-American Families." It has been unanimously agreed by the members that one sure way of keeping daughter from adopting an American accent when she speaks French is to arrange a parental visit.

Since the French economy doesn't offer much opportunity for earning such a round-trip boat fare, it has been voted that their American sons-in-law should cough up the necessary capital. This is one of the first things that the congress decides every year!

HOWEVER, in spite of the unanimous decisions and resolutions of their club, most of these warbride fathers still haven't managed to get their boat fare.

The club has four-thousand five-hundred members. They have compiled statistics which show that eighty per cent of their daughters have at least three children. This is strong evidence that these warbrides have taken up firm American roots.

Among the club members there are a few whose problems are somewhat distinct from the rest. Some of them have sons in America who have married American WAC's. Because these cases are not numerous enough to warrant an independent club, they have allied themselves with the warbride fathers. They are pressing for the same issues, although nothing is said about their daughters-in-law supplying boat passage money.

INDIVIDUAL members of the club come and go with some frequency, but the bulk of the membership has not yet managed the trip. When a member is bound for America, he goes laden with addresses and instructions to see how other fathers' daughters are going. Among other things, they have now learned that a visit to Chicago does not necessarily entail getting shot at by gangsters.

During reunions, both official and unofficial, general conditions of Franco-American daughters are described. Although parents usually demand the very best for their offspring, these warbride fathers seem generally satisfied.

'Oh, Men Oh, Women' At Shady Lane

A satirical comedy about a psychoanalyst who finds that his fiance rubs his neurosis the wrong way, has been scheduled as the next attraction of Shady Lane playhouse in Marengo, where it will open Tuesday, August 16, for a 6-night engagement, Tuesday through Sunday.

"Oh, Men Oh, Women" how a lovely moron—who is about as irrational as an attractive female can get—drives nuts the doctor who is specializing in curing nuttiness. This hurts his professional pride as well as his equilibrium. In the course of the play 2 full sessions of patients on the psychonanalyst's couch are staged, and during the long Chicago run these instances of soul-thrashing reverberations were considered the funniest elements of the comedy.

Herbert Voland will be the whimsical patient who takes his place on the confessional couch to tell the doctor how he can't get a particular bothersome and amorous young woman out of his mind. After disclosing a good deal about her the patient happens to let slip her name—and it's that of the doctor's fiance.

'Golden Apple' Now At Music Theater; Mimi Benzell Next

The N. Y. prize-winning comedy musical hit, "The Golden Apple," now bringing laughter at the Music Theater in Highland Park, continues nightly at 8:30 through August 18. It joins "South Pacific" and "Guys & Dolls" as one of the theater's biggest hits at the peppermit-colored arena next to the Villa Moderne on Lake-Cook road, between Edens and Skokie highways.

Next in line is another hilarious musical, "By the Beautiful Sea," starring Mimi Benzell, Metropolitan opera, concert and TV beauty. Last year the popular singer broke the theater's attendance record with "Showboat."

Miss Benzell will play the role originated last year on Broadway by Shirley Booth, as Lottie Gibson, retired vaudevillian living on the Coney Island boardwalk, who is beset by one comedy episode after another.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Columbia Records, originators of the long-playing disc back in 1948, are commemorating not only this fortuitous anniversary but also that of the tenth year that the great Philadelphia orchestra has been under contract to the firm. The result is a wonderful series of 12-inch releases, the realistic sound reproduction of which would be difficult to surpass when played on adequate hi-fi equipment.

Eugene Ormandy, now director of the Philadelphia orchestra, has given us some superb interpretations on lp this year. We recall with pleasure his reading of the Rachmaninoff Third Symphony, the Rimsky-Korsakoff - "Scheherazade," the magnificent "Ports of Call" disc which programmed Ibert's exotic "Escales" and a dazzling performance of Ravel's "La Valse" and "Bolero," as well as Bela Bartok's great Concerto platters stand as a landmark of recording achievement.

FROM NEW SERIES —actually in advance of Columbia's regular fall release—Ormandy brings us a scintillating interpretation, on a single 12-inch disc, of Igor Stravinsky's memorable "The Rite of Spring" and the concert suite from his ballet "Petrouchka." Seldom has so much music been transcribed onto a single disc! The former work caused a riot at its first performance in Paris in 1912 under Pierre Monteux, but we now recognize it as one of the most vital works of the century.

It is a musical depiction of primitive rituals to the elements in the days of pagan Russia, and the final pages of this score are magnetically stirring. "Petrouchka" is one of the composer's most popular works, and justly so, for it combines rhythm, color, melody and a definite program story with enormous listening appeal. The sound of this disc is absolutely fabulous, and we consider this lp one of Columbia's greatest!

ANOTHER ORMANDY gem is the 12-inch platter which offers three of Tschaikowsky's most famous and beloved scores: the dynamic and romantic "Romeo and Juliet Overture—Fantasia," the exciting "Marche Slav" and the thunderous "1812 Overture." To hear these familiar works given such vigorous and exciting interpretations by a great orchestra in terms of concert-hall-like sound is an unforgettable experience!

Another Columbia 12-inch disc which we heartily applaud brings us Vivaldi's "The Seasons," an enchanting musical portrait for the four seasons of the year by a great 18th-century master, beautifully performed by the Philharmonic Symphony of New York under the baton of the brilliant young conductor Guido Cantelli.

Future Farmers of America — FFA — 4H CLUB

Girl Scouts Become 4-Hers; To Display Garden Produce

Intermediate girl scout troop 8 of Arlington Heights, under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Koops and Mrs. Hugh Robinson, have had a full and busy summer of activity and have had a "first," so far as they know, in a particular project.

Next weekend they will be the first 4-H scouts to display at the fair. Each of the 8 girls in the troop has joined the 4-H club and as a girl scout troop have carried which they haev received advice as do regular 4-H'ers. Their garden produce display at the fair will be known as that of "4-H Scouts."

The girls, who will be fifth graders next fall, have received advice through Mr. Bickett, assistant farm advisor in charge of 4-H clubs, on how and when to plant, how to cultivate and care for the garden, what type of results to expect, how to prevent disease or insect destruction of plants, and any other necessary information which would help them to have a garden which would have a good and prolific yield. This year, the girls have seen from experience, how extreme heat can curtail a crop.

In return for the advice and the privilege of showing at the fair, the girls may be asked to demonstrate before groups at any time. At the fair they will serve at the refreshment stand Saturday, between 12 and 3 p.m.

Growing in the scout's garden have been corn, tomatoes, peppers, carrots, cucumbers, green and wax beans, onions, lettuce and flowers covering space of 3500 square feet. Produce that has come in has been sold by the girls at a stand lent to them by Mrs. Gertrude Kaup. They intend to save money as a troop for the next 5 years and if they receive council approval of their plan, take a family caravan trip to Alaska.

Next year they hope to have a small animal project, learning how to care for them through the 4-H.

Land for the garden was lent to the girls by Carl Klehm and the girls were allowed to place their selling stand on the property of August Busse. The garden is located at Algonquin and State rds. Tomatoes and pepper plants were given by Andrew Spiniolas; onion sets by Walter Sass; corn, squash, cucumber, carrot, lettuce and lady slipper seed by Mrs. John Dittrich as well as tomato plants. Mrs. Harold Johnson, second vice president of the Girl Scout council gave the cultivator.

Members of the troop are Karen Campbell, Barbara Goettsche, Jeannie Koops, Gail Kurtz, Penny Pennington, Julia Robinson, Marianne Tomer and Janie Wittenberg. Families of the girls have given much assistance and encouragement in their project.

Local FFA Boys Win Honors At Sectional Fair In Woodstock

Members of the Future Farmers of America club of Arlington Hts. high school walked off with many top honors despite keen competition at the sectional FFA fair held at Woodstock last week Thursday.

"Gilt Chain" sows won first place for Ronald Schulze and second place for Erwin Panzer. These sows were given to the boys by the high school last year. They were to raise them and when the sows had a litter they were to give 2 gilts from each litter back to the school, which in turn will give them to 4 other boys, thus continuing the chain from year to year.

Panzer also won third place gilt, third place boar and second place for the litter raised from his gilt. The gilt had a litter of 12, weighing between 20 and 30 pounds at birth. Within 56 days the litter tipped the scales at 429 pounds.

Don Drewes won first place in the boar division and third place for litter.

In the dairy division Marvin Meyer won second, fourth and fifth place for his Holsteins and Dennis Brockmann won fifth place for his junior heifer Holstein.

Carl Heinz copped first place for his soybean crops. Dennis Engelking won third place in this division, Dick Theobald, fourth and Kenneth Cosman fifth.

First place in the melon division went to Lynn Landmeier, with Carl Klehm winning second place. Wayne Oehlerking won second place with his tomatoes.

J. D. Bryson, vo-ag teacher at Arlington Heights high school and FFA adviser, was head of one of the divisions at the fair.

Several of the boys plan to exhibit their stock and produce at the 4-H fair this weekend at Arlington Park Race track.

ARLINGTON Rainbow WATER SOFTENER

Don't Be Fooled!

A SOFTENER THAT REQUIRES ANY ATTENTION WHATEVER for regenerating IS NOT AUTOMATIC.

In the Rainbow Automatic, the nuisance of regenerating has been entirely eliminated. A simple, dependable electric timer does this for you — while you are sleeping.

Regeneration occurs during the night once or oftener each week, depending on how much soft water is required and the use of a Rainbow Automatic is as convenient and trouble-free as an automatic water heater.

Needs salt only 2 to 3 times yearly. Softens — Filters — Removes iron and Corrosive elements. This new type of regeneration is the greatest advancement in water softening since its discovery. Our jet-action backwash method keeps tanks and zeolite clean and fresh for years.

A SOFTENER THAT REQUIRES ATTENTION IS AS OLD FASHIONED AS A WATER HEATER THAT NEEDS TO BE LIT.

No other automatic softener approaches the Rainbow Automatic in simplicity and dependability. Old methods of regenerating have been discarded and our new and improved method takes over.

WITH RAINBOW AUTOMATIC YOU ALWAYS HAVE SOFT WATER. There are no buttons to push, no indicators to set and NO attention is required for regenerating. No water or salt is wasted because only the quantity necessary to supply actual demand for soft water is used. There is no watching, testing or waiting. LESS salt is required for regenerating. Regeneration is NEVER forgotten or neglected. The savings are GREATER than can possibly be obtained with any non-automatic softener.

SOFT WATER IS ALWAYS ON TAP. CLOCK OPERATED — no attention whatever required for regeneration. The clock does all the remembering and unfailingly regenerates the softener. The clock merely trips a switch to 'On' position to start regeneration and trips it "Off" when regeneration is completed. All valve parts and piping are of long-lasting copper and brass. Ten(10) year guarantee.

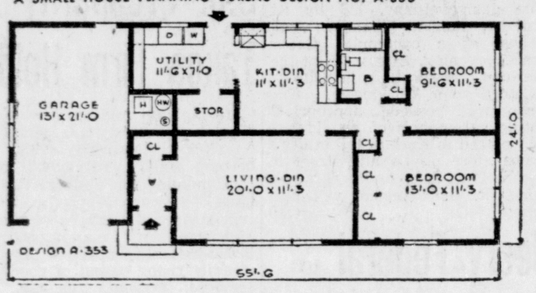
A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. A-353

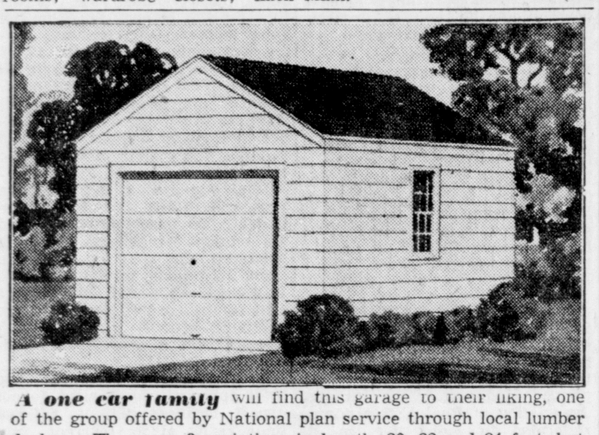


DESIGN A-353. Several features which ease household operation stand out in this plan. One is the elimination of the basement and basement stairs. Another is the tiny hall which can be reached from all rooms and the grouping of laundry and storage facilities within easy reach of the kitchen.

There is a large living room with a picture window, entrance vestibule and coat closet; two bedrooms; wardrobe closets; linen and storage cabinets; combination kitchen-dinette, and an attached garage.

First floor construction is an insulated slab on gravel fill. The balance is frame construction with siding and asphalt shingles. Floor space is 991 square feet, with 10,901 cubic feet, not including garage.

For further information about DESIGN A-353, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn. (DL



A one car family will find this garage to their liking, one of the group offered by National plan service through local lumber dealers. There are 3 variations in length, 20, 22 and 24 feet, but all are 10' wide. Personnel door is to the back. —DL

Here Are Tips On Keeping House Cooler

This is a good time to think about keeping your house cool next summer suggests the small homes council at the University of Illinois.

The most important thing, it says, is to keep heat out. Without an air conditioning unit this will make the house much more comfortable; with one it will permit a smaller unit, cheaper operation.

To keep heat out, the university suggests:

Sun controls which keep walls and glass cool include overhangs, trees and plantings, window louvers or blinds, awnings, louver-type insect screens, and light colors.

LIGHT-COLORED venetian blinds are 70 per cent effective in reducing heat load when they are outside the house, but only 40 per cent effective when inside. Dark-colored blinds used inside are only 15 per cent effective.

A light-colored inside roller shade, fully drawn is 55 per cent effective in reflecting heat; a dark shade only 20 per cent.

The ceiling is the most important part of the house to be insulated, and space under the roof must be adequately vented to let hot air get out.

NIGHT AIR-COOLING with fans reduces the temperature in a house more rapidly than merely opening windows, louvers, and doors.

A house which has been cooled at night begins a hot day at much lower temperature than one still storing heat from the previous day.

An illustrated non-technical 8-page circular on "Summer Comfort" is available for 10 cents from the small homes council, University of Illinois, Urbana. (DL

Most Popular Wood

One half of all softwood lumber manufactured in the United States, about 15 billion feet a year, is from the Douglas fir tree, and comes mainly from Oregon, Washington and California. A majority of all new homes built each year in the nation are framed in this durable and extremely strong lumber. Homes built more than 100 years ago of Douglas fir are still habitable.

Geraniums Can Last All Year, Require Little Care

by JOHN H. BICKET
Assistant Farm Adviser

Geraniums, classed by botanists as Pelargoniums, are perhaps the most commonly grown of all house plants and are very popular also as outdoor bedding plants. They will grow and produce flowers with a minimum of care, yet proper attention to their simple requirements is well repaid by the increased quality, size, and number of their flowers.

Geranium in pots, in the window garden, or conservatory during the winter, prefer full light, relatively cool temperatures (55 degrees to 60 degrees F. night, and 70 to 75 degrees F. midday), soil kept a little on the dry side most of the time, and good ventilation. They are at their best while young, during the first year from cuttings. Plants over a year old are not very satisfactory for the Home Garden. Usually they are discarded after cuttings are taken for new plants.

FOR GERANIUMS to be grown in beds during summer, friable soil only moderately fertile is preferable to very rich soil. Thorough preparation by loosening and pulverizing is necessary. Strong fertilizers and very rich soil are to be avoided, as a moderate rate of growth produces the best flowers. Too much water and fertilizer during the hot weather induces a luxurious growth of foliage but lowers the quality and number of flowers.

Late summer to late fall is the period when most of the cuttings are started. During September and October is favorable if the plants are wanted for early spring flowers indoors and for bedding out. The best wood for cuttings comes from plants that have been rather dry for several weeks, with the growth firm and ripened rather than succulent.

THE CUTTINGS may be started in several different ways. Florists generally root them in beds of coarse sand. Another good method, especially for the home gardener, is to plant each cutting in a small pot in sandy soil. The cuttings are made 2 to 4 inches in length. Trim off one-half of the large leaves; as soon as the cuttings are planted with the soil pressed firmly around their bases, they are well watered.

During the ensuing 2 or 3 weeks while roots are in process of formation, the pots of cuttings are lightly shaded if the weather is warm. After roots have started they are placed in full sunlight. They are watered only enough to keep them fresh and prevent shiveling of the stems. For easy watering the pots may be kept in a water-tight pan and some water sprayed in the pan from time to time as needed. The pots of soil will absorb the moisture without watering the surface.

IF PLANTS are wanted for winter flowering it is advantageous to start the cuttings during August. Fertile garden loam without added fertilizer is suitable for potting soil. As the plants develop and become potbound they are shifted to successively larger pots. When repotting it is desirable to press the soil firmly around the roots as this precaution favors short stocky growth and the development of flower buds. When the plants are 4 or 5 inches tall the tips are cut back a little to induce branching. The stronger of these tips can be utilized for short cuttings that develop good small plants for spring bedding.

Flowering usually begins 4 or 5 months after the cuttings are started if the plants are kept growing at a moderate rate. During winter they need water only when the soil is rather dry. Too much water either in the pots or on the foliage may cause spotting of the leaves.

Business Good, Optimism High

Most consumers are more optimistic this year than they were last, about their present and their future as well, according to the annual survey by the University of Michigan. This is not so surprising; 34 per cent of them have more money in their pockets this year than they had last.

Of more interest to industry, business and banking, is the fact that 42 per cent of the consumers expect business to be generally good for five years. That's half again as many as felt that way last year. The number who feel this is a good time to buy durable goods has risen from 45 to 55 per cent. Despite the huge number of housing starts in the meanwhile, house hunger hasn't abated.

BUSINESS' INTEREST in these buyers' views arises not from any particular regard for the consumers' forecasting ability. Business generally hires its own prophets—who are sometimes right and sometimes wrong. But the man who thinks the rainy day is far off is a more receptive buyer. And that's what pleases the seller.

The Michigan survey is a statistician's dream. Only 2,000 families—different ones each year—are questioned. The Survey Research Center thinks it has so well categorized the nation that these 2,000 can speak for the nation's total 44 million households.

Industrial Plant Expansion Up

Industrial plant investment projects in the 6-county Chicago metropolitan area during the first 7 months of 1955 have exceeded the total announced for the entire previous year.

Investments through July of this year have amounted to $238,097,000 as compared to $149,717,000 for the first 7 months of last year and $231,683,000 for all of 1954.

Projects announced during July represented investments of $39,875,000—more than twice the $16,453,000 total for the same month last year. (BB

Bits O' Business

Department store sales continue to hold up at 10 to 12 per cent above totals for the like period of last year ... Aluminum ingot prices were raised 1.2 cents a pound last week ... Steel output last week was scheduled at 94.4 per cent of capacity. Some industry observers doubted it would better the 90.7 per cent of the previous week; too hot, too little scrap.

To Honor First Use Of Gas 100 Years Ago

Northern Illinois Gas company is planning a public celebration in Ottawa next week, August 15 to 20 where gas was first introduced 100 years ago in the utility's 17-county service territory.

The gas company, led by its president, Marvin Chandler, will be host at a centennial dinner Tuesday evening, August 16, at the American Legion hall in Ottawa for more than 200 guests. The dinner will precede appropriate lighting ceremonies of an old gas lamp placed in front of the utility's Ottawa store on LaSalle street in which Chandler and Ottawa's major, R. C. Woodard, will participate. (BB

Decry Federal Immunity From Local Taxes

Charles A. Hodlmair, president of the northwest suburban real estate board, has praised a plan under which the federal government will make payments to local governments in lieu of property taxes for federal holdings.

"Present tax immunities of federal property have weakened many local governments," said the commission on intergovernmental operations in its June report. The group recommended that the national government "inaugurate a broad system of payments in lieu of property taxes to state and local governments," adding that such payments are "necessary to help preserve financially healthy local governments.

"REALTORS have long advocated such an equitable arrangement by which the federal government pays for the services it receives from the local government," explained Hodlmair. "The National Association of Real Estate boards reiterated this objective in its policy statement at its convention last year, and the Northwest Suburban Real Estate board repeats its concurrence."

Realtors believe that property owned by the federal government which is not in the public domain and which does not serve a local or regional purpose but which receives services from local government, should pay local taxes or their equivalent for such services.

Congress is expected to approve such a plan at its next session.

State Bond Sales

In the first six months of this year, Illinois has reached 55.2% of annual quota, with sales of Series E and H bonds totaling $275,760,000. This represents an increase of 16½% over sales for the first six months of last year, and presents an encouraging picture as we start on the second half of our effort to reach the annual quota of $499 million 400 thousand dollars.

Research Director

Fredrick S. Siebert, director of the University of Illinois school of journalism and communications, has been named by Pres. Lloyd Morey to be acting director for 1 year of the university's institute for communications research.

Completes 35 Years

C. H. O'Hearn, 829 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, has completed 35 years service with Chicago and Northwestern railway. He is currently employed as assistant general auditor. (BB

U.S. Prosperity Takes Firm Hold

Moving into midsummer, the U. S. economy presents a picture of high-level prosperity which has become solidly entrenched in recent months, the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago reports in its current review of business conditions. Significant indicators of this broad-based property are the steadily rising output of goods and services, personal income, and employment. Each of these measures is now at an all-time high.

The nation's output of goods and services reached a record annual rate of 383 billion dollars during the second quarter of 1955. This is 28 billion above the year-ago figure and one of the sharpest year-to-year gains in the postwar period.

PERSONAL INCOME in a recent month crossed the 300 billion dollar mark (annual rate) for the first time in history. Such income gains indicate that consumer buying will continue to exceed 1954's level by a substantial margin in the period immediately ahead. Most of the surge probably will show up in soft goods as the expected seasonal declines take place in autos and certain other durable lines.

Total employment climbed to a record 64 million at midyear. Expanding job opportunities reduced the number of persons receiving unemployment compensation to under 1.2 million, the lowest figure in almost two years. Only 3.1 per cent of the covered workers were receiving benefits compared with 5.6 per cent a year before.

NEVERTHELESS, even the most optimistic forecasters do not expect business activity to continue rising at its current rate through the rest of 1955. Upward pressure from two important sources, motor vehicles and construction, has already eased. Prospects for an orderly cleanup of 1955 autos, however, appear to be improved as a result of recent inventory reductions. Also, no significant dip in construction activity from seasonally adjusted levels is anticipated.

In the midwest, the construction and capital spending boom has more than kept pace with the nation. Construction contract awards in this area showed a 41 per cent rise in the first half.

In Korea

From Korea comes word of Paul Stemple, husband of the former Marilyn Volkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Volkman of Arlington Heights. Paul is currently assigned with the 547th engineer company in Korea, where he is now SP3.

Paul has been out of this country 14 months, and hopes to return to his wife and son, Wayne Allen, about October 25. I hope anyone who knows someone from around Heights will ask them to get in touch with me. Days are so long, perhaps we could do a bit of visiting.

His address is SP3c Paul E. Stemple, US 55458642, 547th Engr. Co. (Flt. Brg), APO 358, San Francisco, Cal.

In England

Pfc. Raymon Trost, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Trost, Mt. Prospect, was recently presented with a silver cup honoring him as "soldier of the month" at Brize Norton, England, where he is stationed with the 45th Chemical Smoke Generator Company.

He won the honor for the second time the next month and received as a reward a 3-day pass and $15. Raymon and a couple of other men were also honored at a parade and "received the troops" from the reviewing stand.

At Chanute

A/3c Donald Kosmin, of Wheeling, son of Mrs. E. Truelsen, is stationed at Chanute Air Force base, where he is attending school to become an aircraft engine mechanic.

In Georgia

Tackling big problems is an old story to Warren G. Petersen of Camp Gordon, Georgia, for two weeks active duty as a mobilization designee.

And one of the biggest problems the army reserve captain ever faced was a sizable upheaval in the earth's crust called Mt. Baldy — one of the highest peaks in the Rockies.

As a student in the army's mountain climbing schol at Camp Carson, Colorado, Capt. Petersen and fellow soldier-students climbed Mt. Baldy as the final test in their knowledge of mountain climbing techniques and the use of climbing equipment.

"Going up Baldy was tough," Capt. Petersen said, "and coming down was even more difficult — the main thing was not to let your feet get out of control."

Capt. Petersen, who fought with the 63rd infantry division when they pushed across the Rhine into Germany in World War II, find the problems in Georgia physically smaller but larger in scope.

In his assignment as assistant to the commander of the 5th batallion of the Southeastern signal school at Camp Gordon, he deals with special problems and projects of the batallion.

In civilian life Petersen is an attorney with the Van Duzer Gerhon and Quinlan law firm in Chicago. He lives with his wife, Helen, and daughter, Jan Ann, in Arlington Heights.

William D. Klink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Klink, of Mt. Prospect, is shown on the flight line by an Air Force Scorpion jet interceptor. Cadet Klink is attending a four week summer training course at the Minneapolis-St. Paul international airport as part of his advanced air force reserve officer training. Here he observes and actually participates in air force operations.

Following graduation at the University of Illinois, he will be eligible for appointment as a second lieutenant in the air force reserve and for entry into flight training to win silver wings of air force pilot.

Palatine Pre-Med Student Likes Flying With Air Corps

1st Lt. Walter N. Nielsen, aircraft accident investigating Officer for England Air Force Base has been selected as the "Tiger Talk's" Flying Tiger of the week.

Lieutenant Nielsen, a native of Palatine, Ill., atended Pre Med School at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., prior to entering the Air Force. He qualified as an Aviation Cadet while still a civilian but entered the Air Force as an enlisted man in May 1951. The lieutenant entered the Aviation Cadets in January 1952 and was graduated from flying schol in February 1953 at Laredo, Texas.

Transitioned in F-80

Upon graduation from the Cadets, Lieutenant Nielsen was assigned to Moody Air Force Base to Instrument Instructors School for two months. From Moody AFB he went to Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla., for gunnery transition in the F-80 aircraft.

In May 1953 he was sent to England Air Force Base and asigned to the 390th Fighter Bomber Squadron until January 1955 at which time he was assigned as Aircraft Accident Investigating Officer for the Wing. The Lieutenant also was acting Flying Safety Officer in the absence of Captain Garvin while the Captain was away to Flying Safety School at Southern Cal.

The Lieutenant claims as his most exciting experience an event which took place back in January 1954, at Alexandria, about six months after he had started flying jets. He was on a routine gunnery mission to Sabine Range and was returning to England Air Force Base when his F-86 experienced complete electrical and hydraulic failure. Lieutenant Nielsen tried to get the plane home but had to bail out at 7,000 feet. The plane crashed near the number 5 green at the Alexandria Country Club and the Lieutenant landed in a tree in the middle of the swamps Southwest of the Air Base.

Lieutenant Nielsen has logged 750 flying hours with 500 hours in jet aircraft. He has flown the T-33, F-80, F-86, and the F-84F.

The Lieutenant met his wife Martha Ann, at Bainbridge, Ga., where she was a Link Instructor. They were married in February 1953, just after his graduation from Flying School. They have one child, Lynda Ann 20 months and are presently living in Alexandria, La.

Lieutenant Nielsen names his hobbies as golfing and deep sea fishing. (WUS

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

We sat in the shadow of another steeple a few Sundays ago. This can be an enlightening experience. As I said to a friend, "One should always seek to learn what the 'cash customers' experience."

That term is not used lightly. There is a delicate balance that must be observed between the attractions which the Christian faith presents to men and women and the compulsions with which Christian faith confronts men and women. We must lead by the attractions to the point where the compulsions may be recognized.

A WORSHIP service should be an experience by which men and women who are voluntarily exercising their freedom to worship (or not to worship) are led to see the majesty of God and the opportunities of men to live under grace.

Competition for the thoughts and emotions of people is an intense thing. However much the church may regret being in competition with secular interests does not alter the fact.

One of 2 things may be true of many services. Either they fail to recognize the competition, or they compete on the wrong level. In the first case, there may be a feeling, especially on the part of the leader, that people must be at worship, that they must appreciate the gift of God's grace. This may become manifest in an attitude of pomposity, chiefly characterized extra-long prayers and dogmatic sermons. Or it may be made evident in a perfunctory approach. For instance, I have heard Roman Catholics speak of the way in which a priest may rush through the prayers. Protestant preachers are more likely to assume the pompous manner than the perfunctory manner.

ON THE OTHER LEVEL, are the entertainers at the altar. They have to bring in a joke which has no reference to the theme of worship. Toothy smiles and a gay manner help to prove that he is "one of the boys." No student of the wit of the "wise men" of Proverbs or the gentle humor of Jesus Christ would object to a natural humor which points a lesson. There is a distinction between humorists and jokesters, and jokesters have no place at the altar of God, at least not usually.

The serious churchmen, meaning laymen as well as the professional leaders, are constantly under the compulsion to evaluate. What are we trying to do? Is it what God wants us to do? How well are we doing it? Since human nature is prone to sin and weakness, Why aren't we doing what the Lord wants us to do in a more capable fashion?

And the final word is, Let's Improve, with the Help of God our Savior.

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

OUR GOLF COURSE OF THE WEEK is Arlington golf club where Paddock Publications tournament for twi-light league leaders will be held a week from Sunday on August 21. This is the course where the Paddock golf school is held in the spring with Dan Taggart, Arlington professional, in charge.

Arlington has the largest club house, dining hall, and locker rooms of any daily fee golf club we have seen, and much more spacious facilities than many of the private clubs of the area.

It was constructed in 1927 as the Olympic country club, a private course with 90% of its membership residents of Arlington Heights. The late Ed Dearie, whose nephew, Jerry, is greenskeeper at Medinah, constructed the course. Depression times changed the club to a semi-private one and in 1940 Curtis Candy company bought the course and club house, and turned it into a cattle pasture and chicken ranch.

LOOKING AT WELL KEPT GREENS and tees, and the grassy fairways one would never imagine the area was used for anything but golf. Dan Taggart persuaded Curtis company to sell him the course four years ago. Otto Schnering, head of the Curtis organization, and William Hunter, farm manager, gave Taggart excellent cooperation in making the switch from cattle and chickens to golf. Their help was appreciated and Taggart has named his club challenge trophies for Schnering and Hunter.

Taggart came to Arlington from Naperville Country Club. Dan, Junior, graduated from Ela-Vernon high school where he played football and basketball and is associated with his dad in the golfing project. Ray Steffens who, years ago, caddied at the club when it was known as Olympic, is Taggart's right hand man and assistant manager.

THE CLUB HOUSE has a large dance floor and an adjoining dining area which will handle 300 persons. The locker rooms for men and women are large with 200 lockers in the men's section so that the daily fee player can have the accomodations of a private club. There is a bar and a big game room adjoining the locker area with entrances from both men's and women's sections.

Arlington has the usual twi-light leagues with Do-All, Aetna Insurance, Northbrook ladies, and a ladies' league and a men's league made up of people of the immediate area. Over 100 ladies play in leagues at Arlington.

One of the important points stressed by assistant manager Steffens was that one nine is always open for play on evenings of twi-light leagues. The leagues tee off on one nine only.

Also, a real feature of golfing service at Arlington is that reservations may be phoned in for starting time at no extra charge, so there will be no waiting at the first tee.

TAGGART STATED that the usual play Saturday or Sunday is over 300 players. We visited the course Saturday, a rainy day, but 125 people had checked out on the course by early afternoon. The course has held up real well for a hot season. The greens show no sign of burning and the fairways are better than most courses.

The course has large pocket type greens built up high from the fairway and difficult to approach except from the front. However, there is no sand, giving encouragement to the weekend golfer.

RATES AT ARLINGTON are reasonable with $2.50 for Saturdays and Sundays, $1.25 for week days, $1.00 after three on weekdays and 75c after 5:00. The course record was set this summer by the teaching pro, George Dayiantis, who turned in a 32-33 for a 65. The former mark of 71 was made by Len Arnold of Palatine.

ACCORDING TO PRO-MANAGER TAGGART the 12th is the sportiest. This is a par three 174 yard hole which has a creek on three sides making the green and the apron an island. The tee is on the top of a hill and the green surrounded by trees. The toughest hole to par is the 15th, a slight dog leg with a steady rise from the tee 435 yards.

The green is set up high with a small opening and is difficult for an approach except from the front. It is a very difficult green to reach in two shots. All the greens on the course are very rolling and well banked on the sides.

We would say the greens are the real feature of the course both for size and for slant and shape. We think Arlington is an ideal setting for the Paddock tournament and will be a real good test for the twi-light leagues' leading teams.

The Pirates were never contenders for the Central League pennant of the Arlington Heights Little League, but they've been a good late-season team, winning 6 of their final 10 games.

The V. F. W. team of the Mt. Prospect Little League had a poor start this summer, but they've been playing good ball in the latter part of the campaign.

Grand Slam Homer Gives Indians Pony League Title

Al Sander is a noted long-ball hitter in the Arlington Heights Pony League, but he has never hit a more important home run than the one he blasted August 2. The best way to describe the circumstances surrounding the impact of the round-tripper is to give a first hand account by Stu Fitz-Patrick, statistics director of the Arlington baseball program. Mr. Fitz-Patrick had this to say about the contest:

"The Pony League championship was decided on the evening of August 2 when the Indians eked out a 6-5 win over the Redlegs in a real Frank Merriwell finish, reminiscent of Gabby Hartnett's twilight homer in 1938. The game was marked by exceptional pitching by both the Indians' Denny Schumacher and Redlegs' Bob Huberty and some freak bouncing balls on the dry hard field. Denny walked only 2 and struck out 10-6 in a row in the middle of the game—and Bob had 4 straight strikeouts twice during the game. Huberty ended up with a total or 12 fans and only 4 walks. Each pitcher hit one batsman.

"But now to the real thrill of the game . . . The Indians came to bat in the last half of the sixth and final inning, trailing 5-2. Bob Creviston reached first on an error and proceeded to steal second. Denny Denniston walked and Creviston was caught stealing for the first out. Link was put in to pinch hit but he went down swinging for the second out. Then Jerry Bonn and Phil Gustafson walked to load the bases. Up came Sander, the hustling third baseman-catcher, and on the first pitch, Al hit a long high fly to deep center field for a grand slam homer. The Indians were champions of the Arlington Heights Pony League."

Sander had 2 singles and his homer in 4 trips to the plate to pace both teams. For the losing Redlegs Danny Raupp collected a single and a triple and Chester Sokolski banged out a 3-bagger.

Redwings To Host Strong Kolski 9

Arlington Heights area baseball fans are due for another real treat Sunday when the Redwings tackle the league champion Kolski Boosters at Recreation Park. Game time is set for 3 p.m.

When these teams meet, anything can happen and probably will. The Kolskis ran roughshod over the league last year and swept on to the state title and then to national recognition at Wichita in the semi-pro tournament. This year they have won 5 straight games in the Midwest Semipro tournament and thus are the only team left without a loss. Last Sunday they humbled the strong Skokie Indians, 9-1, and automatically qualify as finalists for the championship.

The Kolskis are no strangers to local fans, however. Opening day the Redwings and Kolskis battled down to the wire in a game that was won by the Redwings in the 9th inning. Little Tommy Hoffman, former University of Illinois star, was almost unhittable until he tired in the last inning and the Redwings rallied to win. Dick Bokelmann was tough in the clutch and racked up a well-deserved win.

IT WAS A different story in the next game between these same teams. The Kolskis shut out the Redwings 2-0 in a brilliant pitching duel between these same classy pitchers. Thus a lot of baseball will be played Sunday.

Last Sunday the Redwings were knocked out of the league tournament by Cole Lenzi's nine, 7-2. Misplays and no hitting were the main factors as Dick Bokelman pitched his usual fine game. With the score 5-1 in the 6th inning and the bases loaded and nobody out, Dick Ebeling hit a tremendous drive out of the park but it was foul by a few feet. He then singled sharply but the next 3 batters failed to get any runs across.

Last Friday the Redwings traveled to Batavia for a night game and walloped the Batavia Braves, 11-4. Manager Bud Blumenthal and lefty Bob Laskowski held the Braves to 3 hits. Dick Ebeling hit another long home run and a pair of singles while Blumenthal had a walk, triple, and homer. Gene Spannenberg hit 3 line drives to the third baseman.

Beer Drinkers

The seating capacity of Milwaukee's County Stadium is 43,000. The fans have something of a capacity, too. Being mostly Milwaukeeans, it's easily understandable. The Sporting News relates that at a recent Sunday doubleheader, the fans emptied 108,000 cans of beer.

9th District Wins All-Star Game, Sujack Gains Victory

by BOB FRISK

Even without five talented Park Ridge performers who were playing (and losing, 10-7, 3-1) in Springfield in the state legion baseball finals, the well-balanced ninth district All-Star team tagged a convincing 8-5 defeat on the seventh district Sunday in the fourth annual diamond spectacle.

When Park Ridge qualified for the state finals, the ninth district was apparently inflicted with too severe a handicap to overcome. The Mel Tierney Post 247 had such stalwarts as third baseman Ron Rutkowski; first baseman Bill Liedholm; outfielder Jo Richardson; and catcher Leroy Fick selected on the All-Star team and there didn't appear to be any capable replacements.

Added to the ninth district roster Thursday evening were Arlington's Jim Summers and Dan Vittum; Portage Park's Ralph Janke; Palatine's George Beyer; Franklin Park's Bill Wallberg; and Park Ridge B's Henry Gerfen. And these boys, with the addition of the remainder of the original selections, had no trouble in dumping an over-rated seventh district squad and holding up the high rating of the ninth district.

JOHN SUJACK, Arlington's crafty southpaw, showed the losing district why he is tabbed as the top moundsman in this area. Awarded with the starting assignment by head coach Claude Bailey, Sujack twirled the most effective ball of the long line of pitchers who saw action, and he gained credit for the victory. John hurled the first 3 innings—each pitcher could work a maximum of 3 frames—and he allowed 1 hit and no runs, striking out 5 and walking 2.

Other local performers starting in the tilt were Arlington's Denny Thill and Ed Meinken, both boys playing the entire game, and Palatine's Bob Hamilton and Dick Wisner. Wisner and Thill will be sophomores in high school this fall and Meinken will be a junior. Hamilton is the only boy playing his last season of legion ball.

Operating at third and short, Thill collected 1 hit in 3 trips and played errorless ball in the field. Meinken went hitless in 4 trips but the was extremely effective in handling the talented ninth district hurlers. Wisner and Hamilton failed to garner a safety but Hamilton was on base 4 times via errors.

THE POOLE FORDS' Jim Summers went 0-for-2 and Dan Vittum rolled out pinch hitting. Palatine's George Beyer was safe on an error in his only appearance.

Roger Jenne's circuit clout touched off a 5 run second inning for the ninth district and the boys were never headed with Sujack and Bill Wallberg combining to hurl shutout ball for 5 innings. The seventh district climbed on Hamilton for their only tallies, but Al Otto, after a shaky start, turned in a creditable relief job.

Getting back to Jenne, the talented Portage Park performer played 4 games Sunday and had to leave the All-Star tilt early. In his 2 trips to the plate he belted the aforementioned homer and looked at a third strike. Jenne carried a .368 average, third highest on the All-Star team, into the contest.

HAMILTON had a .444 mark for the highest average of the 2 teams. Winnetka's Bill Pogensee, a member of the Post's strong '53 team which went to the National finals in Miami, Fla., carried a .396 mark into the tilt as did Dick Sander of Portage Park.

Tuesday, August 2, the Poole Fords played the Westmont Merchants with a complete makeshift team, made up of past and present legion performers. Take a look at some of the names appearing in the local lineup: Ron Thill, '51 Arlington graduate and brother of Denny Thill, regular shortstop; Ted Bakalar, third baseman on the district champions of '53 and owner of one of the highest averages in Arlington high school annals—a .417 mark his senior year; Stan Fletcher, regular catcher and leading hitter on the 1955 Arlington varsity nine; Jack Sieburg, class of '54 who played in the Suburban-City Leagues prep All-Star game; and Dave Ryden, manager of the legion team and unbeaten pitcher in his final season of legion ball back in '53. Westmont won 8-3 in 5 innings with Arlington collecting only 2 hits by Bakalar and Ryden.

White Sox, Giants Set Pace In 2 Palatine LL Divisions

The White Sox and Giants are the elite of Palatine Little League baseball with each team pacing their respective leagues going into this week's action. The Sox hold a big 2 game margin over the Indians and the Giants are on top by a slim 1 game.

The pace-setting White Sox won 2 games last week as they increased their American League slate to 6-1. In the first game, August 4, the Yankees trounced the Tigers, 17-8. Smith had a homer for the winners, and Shur, Stoneking, and Krass also had extra-base blows. Domek, Bassett, McIntosh, Foster and Smith clouted doubles for the Tigers.

Yankees	408 7—17
Tigers	300 5— 8

BATTERIES: Yankees — Goldhammer and Shur; Tigers—McIntosh, Foster, Lynch, and Smith.

THE INDIANS and Sox engaged in a tight pitcher's duel with Ball and Seehausen sharing duties for the Indians and Seidel and Rose for the Sox. The Sox were hitless for the game but managed to push over 3 runs by Rose, Hoffman, and Wolf to win, 3-0. For the Indians Clark had 2 hits and Ball had 1.

Indians	000 00—0
White Sox	002 1*—3

BATTERIES: Indians — Ball, Seehausen and Clark; White Sox—Seidel, Rose and Michels.

On August 8 the Indians gained a 16-1 victory over the Tigers behind the fine pitching of Seehausen who held the opposition to 1 scratch hit by Domek. Ball and Nelson collected 3 hits each for the Indians, while Seehausen had 2, and Van Hoosier, Clar, and Goodwillie had 1.

Tigers	100 0— 1
Indians	611 8—16

BATTERIES: Tigers — Bassett, Smith and Foster; Indians— Seehausen and Goodwillie.

THE WHITE SOX edged the Yankees, 5-4, scoring the winning run in the last of the sixth. Hicks walked to initiate the rally and scored to cinch the victory. The game featured fine pitching with 5 hits given up by Seidel for the Sox. 3 hits were collected off Hicks who went the entire route for the Yankees.

For the Sox Rose, Michels and Hicks had singles. Smith rapped a long home run and a double in 2 times at bat. Shur had a home run; Hartman, a double; and Goldhammer, a single.

Yankees	012 100—4
White Sox	011 021—5

BATTERIES: Yankees — Hicks and Shur; White Sox—Seidel and Michele.

IN THE AUGUST 2 games of the National division of the Palatine Little League, the Giants beat the Cards, 5-2, and the Cubs trounced the Braves, 22-0.

The Giants-Cards game was a closely-played contest. The pitching was tight, each team drawing only 3 hits. Third inning fielding lapses by the Cards made the difference in the outcome as 3 errors led to a 3-run Giant rally. Stief cracked out a home run for the Cards.

Cards	010 100 —2-3
Giants	002 300*—5-3

BATTERIES: Cards —Berry and Moss; Giants—Helms, Christensen, and Donahoe.

THE CUBS-BRAVES donnybrook ended in a 22-0, no-hit, no-run win for the Cubs. O'Reilly and Carpenter shared pitching chores for the winners. Only 3 Braves reached first, O'Reilly walking 1 and Carpenter, 2 men. Kehe was the Cubs' big gun driving in 4 runs and scoring 3 times.

Cubs	387 4—22-10
Braves	000 0— 0- 0

BATTERIES: Cubs — O'Reilly, Carpenter, and Weitzel; Braves—Barr, Olson, Chessman, Smith and Phillips and Trenchard.

The August 5 games found the Giants, hottest team in the division, zooming to first place on the strength of a 4-game winning streak with a 5-3 win over the Cubs. The Card beat the hard-luck Braves, 10-4, to end a 3-game losing streak.

THE GIANTS' Christensen and Helms teamed up to hold the Cubs to 1 hit, a triple by O'Reilly that drove in 2 runs. Weirhdt's sacrifice fly scored O'Reilly. Donahoe's bases loaded homer gave the Giants a big start in the first inning. Donahoe pushed Helms across with the final run in the Giants' fifth frame.

Cubs	300 000—3-1

BATTERIES: Cubs — Kehe, O'Reilly, and Rogan; Giants—Christensen, Helms and Donahoe.

The Cards got back on winning ways by beating the Braves who have been hard hit by vacationing players. The Braves' Phillips and the Cards' Campbell each gave up 3 safeties. Wildness and loose fielding hurt the Braves. Schiele tripled and Philips homered with a man on to help the Braves' scoring output. Marker and Stief got doubles in the extra gase clouting for the Cards.

Braves	003 1— 4-3
Cards	352 *—10-3

BATTERIES: Braves — Phillips and Scheile; Cards — Campbell and Moss.

Mt. Prospect Falls, 3-0, In District LL Tournament

by BETTY KIRCHOFF

Wednesday evening, Aug. 3, at Glenview, Deerfield defeated the Mt. Prospect Little League All-Stars, 2-0, thus eliminating the local nine from tournament play.

Gene Dahlquist twirled for Mt. Prospect and although he lost, Gene pitched excellent ball, allowing only 4 hits and whiffing 10 Deerfield batters.

Going into Deerfield's half of the fifth, both pitchers were working on a shut-out but the victors soon put an end to that. They pushed across the 2 winning tallies on 2 hits, a walk, and a hit batsman.

Your reporter wishes to congratulate the boys who played on this year's All-Star team for the fine showing of sportsmanship they displayed in all 4 tournament games.

SUNDAY THE Cubs smashed the Sox second half pennant hopes as they trounced the one-time leaders, 7-1, behind Dave Soenksen's 2-hit performance. This win puts them in a 2-way tie for second in the NW Pony League with the Braves who won their game against the Indians.

The Sox got their lone run in the first when Freddy Boedeker stole home. At that time, it looked like a big run but the Cubs soon changed the picture. They tallied single runs in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 5th to take a commanding 4-1 lead. In the sixth with runners on second and third, Bork passed Bader intentionally to load the bags and bring up Soenksen. Dave came through with a bloop double that cleared the bases.

The same day at Prospect Heights, the Braves knocked off the leaders of this rat race, 5-2. Gary Jobst, their ace pitcher, fanned 20 out of a possible 21 to gain the victory. This was the Indians' first loss of the second round. Last week the Indians beat the Wheeling Merchants, 5-4, in a first half make-up game.

Rolling Meadows Man Cops Gun Club Title

Henry Schneider, 2803 W. Campbell, Rolling Meadows, captured his fourth straight North Shore Gun Club championship Tuesday afternoon with a score of 291 out of a possible 300. Closely pressed for the title, Schneider won his crown by 1 target. The runner-up had a score of 290 and the third place finisher had 285. The meet is run in 3 different classes, slow, timed and rapid fire.

Schneider has been a member of the North Shore Club for 10 years and his past 3 championships have been accomplished with scores of 290 in '54, 285 in '53, and 287 in '53. Located on the outskirts of Waukegan, the North Shore Club has over 300 members.

Boydson Heads Able Crew Of All-Star Ends

The college All-star team that will meet the Cleveland Browns in Soldier field on the evening of August 12 has only six ends on the squad. But they are mighty good ones.

Four of them are slated for offensive duty and two for defense. Of course if they are needed the offensive ends will have been schooled in defense.

HEADING this group is Max Boydson of Oklahoma. Max, who probably will play as much on defense as he will on offense, was named on the defensive All-Players All-American team. He is an excellent pass receiver but under Coach Wilkinson at Oklahoma didn't receive too many opportunities to grab the ball because of the Sooners' famed running attack.

Henry Hair, Georgia Tech; Ed Bernet, Southern Methodist, and Jim Hanifan, California, are the three other offensive ends. All three are proficient pass receivers with Hanifan leading the nation in pass receiving. Each stands three inches over six feet.

DEAN DUGGER of the championship Ohio State team and Jim Temp of Wisconsin are slated to do most of the defensive chores at end. Both are big, strong and rugged competitors. Dugger is 6'2" and weighs 215 pounds while Temp is two inches taller and 15 pounds heavier.

These ends could make it an interesting evening for Browns if they play up to their capabilities.

Tam Amateur Winner Stays In Prospect Hts. During All-American

Doug Sanders, the 22 year old University of Florida golf star who captured the All-American amateur tourney last weekend at Tam O'Shanter with a 72 hole total of 286, stayed at the home of Tony Koske, Prospect Heights, during the tourney. Sanders is a very promising young golfer whose previous major tournament victory was the 1955 Southeastern Amateur.

John Goetz, Jr., Palatine, who turned in a 70 qualifying round, dropped out of play Saturday in the All-American. Arlington's Dick Hauff failed to qualify for this year's meet.

Oldtime Foes

Illinois' 1955 football game with Northwestern, 49th in a rivalry which dates to 1892, represents the oldest rivalry on this fall's schedule. Two opponents, California and Michigan State, are being met for the first time.

Besides Northwestern, other historic rivalries of the Illini are with Ohio State, 44th game, and Michigan, 41st game. Illiniois will be meeting Iowa State for the fifth time, Minnestota for the 23rd time, Purdue for the 37th time, and Wiscosin for the 32nd time. (Sp

Supper, Ball Game Honor Orioles

The Orioles of the Arlington Hts. Pony League were given a barbecue supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamachek August 5 in thanks for the wonderful cooperation of each boy on the team. Through the efforts of Mr. Hamachek and Mr. Hartmann, the coach and manager respectively of the Orioles, the boys were given an additional treat by going to the Cubs-Dodgers game. Also included in the group were Dave Butts of the Indians, Ken Mueller of the Braves, Bob Dodge of the minor leagues, and Don Hamachek of the Tigers.

The group of 21 boys were given transportation on bus to the game by Harvel Bus Company. A highlight of the Wrigley Field excursion was that the entire group was taken down to the Dodgers' dugout and each boy met and received a personal autograph from Gil Hodges, Brooklyn first baseman.

The Circle F team with a 19 goal rating will field four daring players included Russell Firestone, Jules Romfh, Clarence Starks and seen for the first time in the middlewest Prem Singh from India.

Kansas City Athletics Baseball Tryout Camp At St. Charles High

Tryout camp conducted by the Kansas City Athletics will open Thursday morning, August 11, at St. Charles high school diamond, with all major league hopefuls invited.

The camp will run Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and will be under direction of Joe Bawman and Clarence Jounard, former major leaguers. Youngsters interested in performing before the experts are asked to report at 9:30 in the morning wearing baseball shoes and uniforms.

Art Wenzel of Roselle, formerly scout with St. Louis Browns, is now associated with the Athletics.

Orioles' Wisner Hurls No-Hitter

Tension is mounting in Palatine's Babe Ruth League as 3 teams battle for the top rung of the second half standings. A 1-0 shutout by Coleman Drugs over Fiddes-Moore threw the league into a mad scramble with a trio of clubs holding identical 4-3 marks.

Wednesday, August 3, the Palatine Orioles played ball like the champs of the first half in beating the Browns, who are hotter than the weather, 4-2.

Although the Browns fought every inch of the way, they were no match for the brilliant pitching of Richard Wisher, the talented performer who's been making a name for himself in both American Legion and Babe Ruth ranks this summer. Wisner didn't allow a ball out of the infield in pitching his masterpiece.

THE CONTEST was a duel between Wisner and Orrin Helms for the first 3 innings, and although the Browns had some beautiful fielding by Bill Baumrucker, Helms weakened and the Orioles scored 4 times. Richard Ramstedt drove a single to right field to score the first 2 runs, then 2 more tallies scored on a solid single to center by Dave Bockman.

In other Babe Ruth league contests Browns dumped Colemans, 6-3, Fiddes-Moore crushed the Orioles, 12-6, and edged Browns, 17-16, in a 13 inning thriller.

Coach Ray Eliot Has Won 8 Of 9 Against West Coast

Coach Ray Eliot will try to restore his winning ways against Pacific Coast competition when Illinois meets Californit at Berkeley in the 1955 season's opener Sept. 24.

Until last season Eliot never had lost to a Pacific Coast team but his 1954 squad dropped a 12-2 decision to Stanford at Palo Alto. Prior to that loss, Eliot-coached Illini teams had eight straight.

Eliot's record against Coast foes:

Smith & Dawson Routs Painters In Rob Roy Play

The Smith and Dawson team turned on the heat in the Rob Roy league with Joe Marcin firing a 39, Carl Hammerl a 39, Irv Rybicki a 43, and Ray Borough a 45 to take 6½ points from Webber Paint. The one-sided victory put Smith and Dawson in fourth place only 6½ points behind the league leaders and dropped Webber into a tie for first with Hartman House.

The Wheeling Bowl team took Dunteman Dairy in stride, 5-2. Marsh Balling turned in a 39 and kept his Bowlers within striking distance of the leaders.

Hartman House displayed its potential power by drubbing Kirchhoff, 5-2, when John Bozik shot a 38 to match captain Ray Meyers' 38 and they were closely followed by Art Thorsen's 39. A team with 3 scores like these takes a powerful lot of golf to beat. Another display like this and it will be easy to name the league champs closing night.

MICHAELS IGA played Prospect Hts. Variety Store to a 3½-3½ split thanks to Adam Serbins' 39. Park Ridge Stop and Sock took the short end of a 4-3 score from Ehler and Wenborg. Prospect Heights Service Station bested L-Nor Cleaners, 4½-2½. Last place Prospect Hts. Pharmacy reared up Tuesday night and knocked off Wulbecker Furniture, 5½-1½.

Next week will find Webber Paint paying Prospect Hts. Variety Store which is another tough one. Hartman House faces Dunteman Dairy which is no push-over either. And Wheeling Bowl plays Prospect Hts. Service Station, putting them in the best position they have to take over first place. The dark horse in the race, Smith and Dawson, takes on the L-Nor Cleaners. To make matters more interesting, Bob Peterson, Webber Paint's 2 man, will be out of town next week and a substitute will be depended on to convert his point. Only 2 nights of league play remain.

Inverness Golf Club

Qualifying rounds have been played and pairings posted for the match play club championships in each of three classes at the Inverness Golf club. Some of the good players in each class were on vacations and did not play qualifying rounds which includes Hardy Hodgson, the club champ of a year ago, and Bud Hertel. However, there is a three day medal play championship in each class over the Labor Day weekend which also established club champs. It was this which Hodgson won last year.

In class "A" the upper bracket has George Eadtman vs. Bill Dietrich, Phil Prasse vs. Frank Wenter, Jack English vs. M. W. Kiefer, and John Goetz Jr. vs. Roy LaLonde. In the lower bracket are paired Charles Eastman vs. Jerry Prasse, C. Seitz vs. Jim Zamrazil, Tom Smith vs. Norm Anderson, and H. C. John who drew a first round bye.

In class "B" the upper bracket includes E. W. Lersch vs. Joe Osten, F. E. Corliss vs. F. Hodgson, C. M. Smith vs. H. Worsley, and P. W. Manning vs C. H. Thompson. The lower bracket has H. J. Ball vs. Bill Ziska, G. L. Teach vs. M. Stitt, John Cates vs. K. K. LeMay, and Tom Rogan vs. F. Steingraber.

Class tournament pairings have in the upper bracket C. O'Brien vs. Bud McCartney, G. McConnell vs. John McKee, Lou Robertson vs. Bill Meek, and Mal Smith vs. Ed Flescher. Lower bracket pairings are B. Bredehoff vs. A. B. Lytle, J. Wright vs. Bob Nelson, Ed Haseman vs. E. G. Ogier, and John Goetz Sr. vs. H. A. Doolittle.

In play this last Saturday Norman Anderson won the blind bogey event.

Rolling Green Golf

Saturday's play at Rolling Green Ciuntry Club for low net, par 3 and par 5 holes, found F. E. Leach taking top honors with a 31-8-23. Runner-up was H. Burdick with 32-7-25 and R. Wetzel with 32-6-26 and R. Picchietti with 35-8-27 followed.

Sunday in low net, threesome play, the trio of A. Koske, J. Coleman, and R. Picchietti captured laurels with 261-45-216. Following the Koske, Coleman, Picchietti team were W. Armour, H. Wright, and R. Wetzel with 262-37-225.

These smiles were only 5 of hundreds at Beverly Lanes Saturday when the brand new, 16-alley establishment, opened its doors for the first time in Arlington Heights. With 2 free games offered every bowler, 800 lines were rolled that first day. That rate of play continued Sunday with 300 lines racked up Monday.

State & Rand Qualifies For Paddock Golf Tourney

State and Rand Service picked up 4 points and will represent the Old Orchard Scratch League at the Paddock Tournament. They took eventual control of every match except the one where Len Arnold scored an even par 36 for the back nine but still lost his match 2 down. Harv Sheppard was the master of the sizzling 2 under 34 on 3 birdies, 5 pars and one bogey. Sheppard went 1 up on the 430 yard 13th with a birdie 3 and was 2 up on the 335 yard 16th with another birdie. Sheppard birdied the 14th to gain a hole but lost it on the 540 yard 15th when Arnold dropped his putt for a birdie 4.

Smith & Dawson sent the divots flying when they made a gallant attempt for first place by picking up 6 points. Scores of 37 were made by O. Andersen who birdied the 480 yard of 14th hole and Mike Graft who dropped putts for birdies on the 155 yard 12th hole and the 540 yard 15th hole. Carl Berlin contributed with a birdie on the 480 yard 14th and a 2 up victory over P. Ellingsen.

L'NOR CLEANERS remained in contention by squeezing thru the Parkway Liquor team for 4 points. Leading scorers were Stan Fill who scored a 36 and Dan Musser with a 37. The 2 had birdies on the 485 yard 5th hole. With a leveling of sights and stroking the ball the following players concocted 38's—A. Griffith, F. Steinken and E. Spacapan. M. Winkelman routed V. Rolfs 4 and 3 to gain his point.

Webber Paint Co. and the Kamps Sign Co. butted heads and neither wanted to give in until the last straw was brushed. This vigorous struggle produced several fine matches and finished with the painters bucketing 3½ points to the sign makers 2½ pts. Dick Burkett was 1 up on Avery Harris but dropped to even when he lost the 12th with a bogey. Harris went 1 up on a birdie putt on the 14th but dropped to even when Burkett birdied the 16th. They settled for a halve and creditable 37's. The next match provided one of this season's unusual events for H. Kamps chipped in an eagle 3 on the 480 yard 14th and watched his opponent, B. Casteel, who had reached the green in 2 strokes, calmly and diligently stroke his ball into the cup for another eagle 3. Thus a 3 on the par 5 15th hole was only good enough to halve the hole in this match. They also ended as a halve when both shot 38's. Til Foy helped the painters by shooting a 39 and whipping M. Kamps 5 up.

Winning Paddock Golf Tourney Easy, If You Play The Course This Way

Here's "the low down" on playing Arlington golf club, hole-by-hole, for Paddock Publications' Inter-League Handicap tournament Sunday, August 21.

HOLE 1 (385 yards—par 4)

This hole is a dog leg to the right. The break is at about 200 yards. Cutting across to the right one finds trouble in a clump of small trees and rough with a bad approach to a green which has a small opening and high banks on both sides.

HOLE 2 (321 yards—par 4)

This hole is a dog leg to the right across a creek. The tee is elevated with the creek about 250 yards away. The green is elevated from the creek bank with trees to make the second shot very difficult if the drive is sliced. An easy par if the drive is 200 yards down the middle.

HOLE 3 (167 yards—par 3)

From an elevated tee one shoots to a green which has the creek about 10 yards behind it. A hooked shot can reach the creek which winds around the green to the left.

HOLE 4 (440 yard—par 4)

This is a long hole to a rather flat open green. An out of bounds fence is close all the way on the right to bother slicers. Otherwise it is a straight level fairway all the way after driving over the creek which is right in front of the tee.

HOLE 5 (618 yards—par 6)

This is the only par 6 hole in Illinois. It is a dog leg to the right with a rolling fairway and trees along the right side. It is not a hard hole to par if a player starts out with two good length wood shots and it is one that the top flight player might generally birdie.

HOLE 6 (168 yards—par 3)

From an elevated tee it is a straight shot to a rather long narrow trough like green. If you go to right or left you have a narrow target for the approach. Putting surface is very sloping.

HOLE 7 (368 yards—par 4)

This hole is a dog leg to the right with a small opening and very high banks on tee side and rear. It is also a bit narrow for the player who takes it straight and approaches over the hump. If you go to the right there are trees and rough in the way.

HOLE 8 (280 yards—par 4)

This is an easy par. The fairway slopes to a valley at 180 yards and then goes uphill to the green which has a narrow opening and is cup like in shape.

HOLE 9 (413 yards—par 4)

This hole is not tee tough if the drive clears a ridge about 180 yards out and goes down the middle. There are trees on the right. The green is a large one.

HOLE 10 (441 yards—par 4

This is a long but not difficult four for the fairway is wide and perfectly flat and the green not as hard to approach as the average.

HOLE 11 (348 yards—par 4)

This hole is straight down a flat fairway but the green is very rolling with a hump across the middle to make putting difficult.

HOLE 12 (174 yards—par 3)

This is a sporty hole with a loop of the creek covering all sides except the rear. There is a space of about 50 feet between the creek and the green. The sides of the green are well covered by trees. A hole where a good shot means a three or a bad one a six or seven.

HOLE 13 (499 yard par 5)

This is not a tough par 5 but there is an out of bounds fence on the left as a hazard for hookers. A few trees along the right can cause trouble. The drive is across the creek and up a short hill to a level fairway. The green has a good opening for the approach from front or right.

HOLE 14 (238—par 4)

A hole that should be regularly parred but a rolling green built on a hump to make approaching difficult unless the drive is in the right location.

HOLE 15 (435—par 4)

This hole is a long uphill proposition after driving across a ravine. The green is built up high with steep sides except for a narrow opening in the front. The green is narrow enough so an approach from the side can easily roll over.

HOLE 16 (190 yards—par 3)

This is a good three wood hole. It is better to be a little short in front than to be hole high but to right or left of the green as it is built up high from the fairway. Fairway is level and no obstructions.

HOLE 17 (303 yards—par 4)

This is a dog leg to the left across a ravine which cut an angle across the fairway about 125 yards large and the hole is not hard to par if you get a good level lie on your tee shot. You can take the short way on this hole and have a very short approach shot.

HOLE 18 (412 yards—par 4)

This hole is a dog leg to the right with a long level fairway and not many hazards except a few small trees if you get off the fairway. The green is very large and you can be on but far enough away to take three putts to get down. This is the only hole where George Dayiantis had a one over par bogey when he set the course record on July 21. He had birdies on numbers on 2-5-7-8-13-14-17 and pars on the others except 18 where he three putted.

Old Orchard Ladies Plan Sept. Luncheon

The Old Orchard ladies golf league is planning a play day and luncheon for Tuesday, September 13, and they wish to invite the Tri-City ladies. Both golf leagues are going strong this summer with weekly results reported in these sports pages.

It is so far from El Paso, Texas, to Austin, the capital, that an early-day senator, traveling with a wagon train for safety against the Indians, did not reach Austin until the legislature had met, transacted all its business and adjourned.

Red Sox Defeat Cubs, 4-2, For Little League Crown

by BOB FRISK

An "ailing" Dave Brodnan pitched the American League Red Sox to the championship of the Arlington Heights Little League, August 4, with a masterful 4-2 victory over the Cubs and Tom Klement.

There was a question whether Brodnan would pitch at all in the title contest, but Dave tested his sore arm in pre-game warmup and looked sharp enough to assure Manager Henry Haiduke that he could effectively work the important 6 innings.

If there was any type of "most valuable" award given in Little League circles, Brodnan would've been practically a cinch to grab the laurels. For the right hander not only capped a brilliant mound season with his performance, but he also concluded a productive year at bat with a double and home run. Though we don't have any official averages, Dave must have wound up with a prolific mark.

BESTING the loser's Klement was no easy task for the Sox's hurler. Tom was a capable performer in his 6 innings, allowing only 5 hits, striking out 11 and walking 3.

Craig Quackenbush, another nifty Red Sox performer, rapped 2 hits in the title contest and looked sharp in the field, coming up with several assists from his shortstop position. The loser's third baseman Frank Harris also collected a pair of safeties.

Here is the championship Red Sox lineup: making up the infield from first to third were Ed O'Gara, Jeff Haiduke, Quackenbush, and Cliff Scholl. Flychasers included Ed Becker, Buzzy Becker, and Larry Croon. Winning battery was Brodnan and Ross Retterer. Henry Haiduke handled the managing duties with Robert Gaolowitsh and Walter Hosek working as coaches.

THE CUBS' victory which sent them into the series finale was a crushing 30-2 decision over the Giants. Blasting 28 hits—6 by Bob Hutchinson—the Cubs tallied 4 times in the first frame, rested in the second, added 7 more in the third, took another breather in the fourth, then countered 10 and 9 respectively in the final pair of segments.

Bob Inman worked the entire route for the victors and as the score indicates, was in complete command. He fanned 10 and walked 7, allowing only 5 hits, 2 each by Fred Empkie and Warren Walter. Terry Seelenbinder took the loss, but we won't go into his mound records. With a score of 30-2 there isn't too much to say about the losing pitcher's statistics.

Outside of Hutchinson's perfect night at the plate with 6 straight singles, Frank Harris, and Bill Miller collected 4 hits each, and Klement, Inman and Ryan Peterson added 3 safeties. Billy Burfeind and Klement drove out the only 2 homers of the contest.

Home Run Cycle

Outfielder Bill Bruton of the Milwaukee Braves has a unique home run record this year. When he hit a homer at Ebbets Field on July 24, it was his eighth of the season. What's remarkable about it, says The Sporting News, is that he completed the cycle with it — one home run in each of the eight parks in the league.

Keppen Pace Arlington's 294-288 Swimming Victory

Joan Keppen, the 12 year old swimming wonder of Arlington Heights, exhibited complete dominance in the 14-15 class Friday in the Arlington-Wheaton swimming meet taken by the locals, 294-288. Joan captured 3 individual events and anchored two winning relay teams, 1 in the 12-13 class and the other in the 14-15 division, to pace the tight victory. The week before Joan set a national record in the 50 meter free style.

Heading the list of boys gaining points in the team victory was Stan Norman who took 3 firsts in the 14-15 class. Stan took the 50 yard free style, 50 yard backstroke, and 50 yard breast stroke.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

"Dog Days"

Every year about this time your editor gets back on the subject of repeating something he has mentioned earlier in the summer, and after our recent hot spell it seems quite timely to discuss the matter again.

Needless to say many a human being, when the weather remains constantly hot, gets rather irritable and is oftentime irked by events which take place around him. This is also true of dog. It certainly doesn't mean that a person is going to become vicious, nor will a dog become vicious, but that old sun has a way of putting everybody in a hot frame of mind after it beats down day after day.

YOUR EDITOR has repeated and will repeat it again, there is nothing in a dog's physical make up which definitely places a certain time of the year as being the time when he will become bothered by the weather. A good example would be a recent case, where the editor had personal contact with a situation, in which a youngster carrying a stick with a flag on the end of it came up to a dog waving the flag while the dog was eating.

It is quite obvious, of course, what happened. The dog thought he was going to be struck by the youngster. (And of all times for the youngster to pick to come up to the dog, it would be right when the dog was eating.) The result was that the dog barked and growled, feeling it was going to be hit, and at the same time jumped at the youngster's arm with his paws in order to try and knock down the stick. No serious damage resulted; however, the child in question is probably much wiser on the subject of approaching a dog while the latter is eating his meal.

Animal Hospitals

During the recent years the trend of our population to increase in the suburban areas is also reflected in the growing need for additional animal hospitals throughout many of the suburban communities. Within the areas served by your paper it has been of interest to note this growing trend and at the same time observe that with more families moving to the country the need for services of additional veterinarians is needed. Your editor has observed in recent months where in two different towns in our area veterinarians have set up practices and, undoubtedly there will be more to come.

Speaking about the animal hospitals brings forth a very interesting matter related to the subject, inasmuch as that from statistics available it would seem that out of two thousand and some odd animal hospital in the United States strangely enough there are only about 300 which cater to large farm animals. The remainder are, basically for the small animal, and as such approximately 90 to 95% are directly concerned with the care and health of dogs. It is therefore, quite apparent that the family dog has become a rather well regulated part in the average American family, and his well-being has brought about the increased number of some of our very well run and well staffed animal hospitals.

"What's New"

The fact that your editor got "mugged" as the Columnist of the Week in the last issue of the paper sort of brings to his mind the fact that it is you, the reader, who basically makes possible some of the material he uses in various articles. For this he wishes to thank all of you and at the same time bring up a question relative to perhaps just what you would like to see in future columns.

Would it be more about an individual breed of dog, something in the way of general care and handling, shows, obedience training or field work? Maybe some of you would like to hear about some of our various kennels in the area, an idea which your editor followed through to some extent a few years ago, when he would write about some particular kennel and the breed of dog raised there? Maybe you would like to hear something more on basic facts or history relative to dogs?

All in all it would be of interest to hear from you as to what you would like to see in future columns.

Barks and Bays

It is of interest to note that sometimes a small animal can do a rather large job. Years ago in the orient it was a very common sight to see a small Pekingese holding the reins in his mouth and proceeding to lead a horse around observed in recent months where the streets of a city.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

There have been many hot days this summer, but Grandma has met them with a calmness and ease that put younger folks to shame. Grandma is 79 and going strong. I asked her the other day as I handed her her mail, "How do you keep looking so cool and contented on these hot days?"

"Simple, Lee," she answered with a smile. "People get hot because they let themselves be worried, irritated and fussy. Just take it easy in hot weather. Don't let things you can't help bother you, and things you can change, go ahead and change them. People get hot because they are thinking about the hot weather, too, and because other people would think there was something wrong with them if they said they were cool and the weather fine. A lot of folks think that you have to follow the crowd and complain with them just to be sociable. Just take it easy."

"GRANDMA'S ADVICE helped me. Perhaps it will help you, too, folks. You can lower the imaginary temperature 10 to 15 degrees just by taking the heat in its stride as something that can't be changed. Instead of getting fussy, relax mentally every moment that you can. Start out to the grocer or to work early so that you have plenty of time to get there and don't hurry home. It's hurry and worry that make the effect of the heat on your body greater than the temperature reading justifies.

Take a leisurely stroll to accomplish your errands away from home in hot weather and take time to stop and visit neighbors on the way to and from. It reduces body tension, takes your mind off yourself and gives you something to think about the rest of the day besides the heat.

TAKE A TIP from Grandma! She's been through a lifetime and is still going strong. She has learned that fussing and fuming, hurrying and worrying is bad for anyone at any time, and especially in hot weather.

Penal Director Will Attend UN Meeting In Switzerland

Eugene S. Zemans, executive director of the John Howard association, left Chicago Wednesday for a study-tour of European correctional institutions.

The head of the prison reform group will also attend the first United Nations congress on the prevention of crime and the treatment of offenders to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, from August 22 to September 3 as well as the third International congress on criminology in London.

The secretary-general of the UN invited Zemans to attend the Geneva meeting in the capacity of a "specialist in the field of social defense." Zemans has been appointed an official delegate of the state of Illinois by Gov. William G. Stratton and will also represent the International Prisoners Aid association at the conference.

JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Peg:

In defense of my excellent bridge playing friends, I must take issue with Sydney Harris and his column of August 3 entitled "Women Just Can't Play Bridge Well." I can't imagine what kind of women Sydney has been playing bridge with to get such weird ideas about their inability to play the game and why.

Can't you just hear what any one of the girls in the bridge club would say if, in answer to the question, "Why did you shift from clubs at the second trick?" her partner replied ("as her eyes widened prettily") "I looked at the expression on your face and thought you were displeased with the club lead." Well really! Yet, Mr. Harris claims that's what his last feminine bridge partner "cooed" to him.

AS THE COLUMN BLUDGEONED ON, it became increasingly apparent that Syd knows little or nothing about women. For instance, he said, "The point I'm making, however . . . is that I've never known a really womanly woman who played cards well." Fortunately, the term "womanly woman" is sufficiently ambiguous to let Sydney get by with his definition which apparently is: One who widens eyes prettily, coos and stays away from card games.

But, to others the description means a woman attractive to both men and women, gentle but scintillating, intelligent and devoted to her children, husband and home. And this definition applies, in its entirety, to almost all of the very good female bridge playes I've known!

"PROFESSIONAL BRIDGE PLAYERS of the feminine variety may look sweet and winsome, but they have minds like traps; they are cool, logical and ruthless. In short they play cards like men." Well, this is a switch. Sydney implies that the "cool, logical and ruthless" mind actually belongs to card playing men, when any good writer can tell you that those adjectives have been used to describe women's minds all the way down the line from Eve to Amber (and they either didn't know or didn't care one bit about bridge.)

Furthermore, it's the cool, logical women who prefer this "intricate and abstract" game, to the well known game of chance—poker—whose male devotees far outnumber those of the bridge table.

"IT IS MY OPINION that the really good feminine card players have more than a touch of masculinity in their natures. In their home life, they tend to dominate the scene; in their social life they tend to be aggressive, highly competitive and more than a little scornful of men." The only women I know whose home lives even vaguely parallel this description are too busy being "aggressive and competitive" to take time out for a game of bridge and the only people they scorn are those who do. As for the idea that "good feminine card players have more than a touch of masculinity in their natures"—this is really a joke! You and I both know that men who play bridge professionally or very well have more feminine characteristics than the average or poor male players.

"Ladies afternoon bridge is one part cards to three parts conversation. These are truly feminine women: the bridge table is merely an excuse for the babble." Oh Syd! You poor mixed up kid! If you ever took the time to see what was going on at a ladies' bridge table, you'd very likely observe that, in the midst of the feminine babble, a cool slam was logically bid and about to be ruthlessly made. So there!

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

When the change in the weather came, it came with a vengeance. It affected different people different ways around here.

The male of the household started breathing again and bravely resisted all efforts to make him don a sweater. He kept maintaining that the wind felt good rustling down the back of his neck. He is now sneezing to prove it.

The oldest girl grumbles that it is now too cold to swim and what is summer for anyway. She is getting even by getting all the fall fashion magazines and planning a school wardrobe that would break the Rockefellers. Cooler weather seems to bring out the skirt and sweater in all the girls.

The rest of the mob is able to take it in stride and have gone from swimming into fishing and hunting. They are much more adaptable. Another nice thing about them is that they don't catch anything.

We were listening to that old medium, radio, this morning. A voice out of the ether came to us saying that someone was as "brown as a berry." As we had not had our coffee yet, and so had not started the day's thinking, we pondered those words over and over. We got to thinking about all the berries of our acquaintance. There are straw (red), black (purple), rasp (purple and red), blue (obviously blue), goose (green), and couldn't come up with even one brown one.

As our old mind was not yet functioning on all cylinders, we got to thinking about other expressions that are fallacies. "Fit as a fiddle" was next on our list for analysis. What is so fit about a fiddle? It fits into the neck of the operator but then, so does a necktie and we have never heard that anyone felt as fit as a necktie. Then too, we have never heard that Isaac Stern or his ilk were about to give a concert using a fit fiddle. Usually it is a Stradivarius.

We could have gone on this way all day except that we then made the mistake of partaking of the coffee before us which switched our mind off the fun stuff and onto more mundane things such as should we iron today or let it mildew just a little longer.

Farm People Are Asking

by JULIUS BERMAN
NW district manager
Social Security Administration

A person who is hired to do farm or other agricultural work can generally tell whether his cash wages count toward his social security. However, a farm owner has several things to consider before he can tell whether his earnings can be counted.

For instance, the mere ownership of farm property does not mean that your net earnings from the property can be credited to your social security account. It is necessary that you actually engage in the operation of the farm. This you may do alone, or under a partnership or joint venture arrangement. You may operate the farm with or without hired help.

IF, AS AN OWNER, lessee, or share-farmer you actually engage in the operation of the farm, you are a self-employed farmer for social security purposes, and your net earnings of $400 or more in a year for any year after 1954 can be credited to your social security account.

On the other hand, if you own a farm but rent it out on cash or share-crop rental arrangement, your income from that source cannot be counted as self-employment earnings for social security purposes. In such cases, the earnings the farm owner derived from the farm property are considered to be rentals from real estate. This is so, whether the rental is paid to him in cash or in a share of the crop. Earnings from the rental of real estate of any kind are not earnings from self-employment for social security purposes (unless you are a real estate dealer).

Of course, you may rent part of your farm lands, and actually operate other parts of them yourself. Your income from that part which you yourself operate will count as earnings from self-employment.

IF YOU ARE a farm operator and also have self-employment earnings from a non-farm enterprise covered by the law, the earnings from both enterprises up to a total of $4,200 in a year can be credited to your social security account. For example: if, in addition to operating a farm, you also operate a store or filling station your combined net earnings from both activities can be credited to your social security account.

Moreover, if, in addition to operating a farm, you also work part of the year in employment for wages, you will get social security credit from those earnings too. In such cases, the wages will count first, and you will report and pay the social security self-employment tax on only enough of your farm earnings to bring the combined total for the year up to $4,200.

As I said at the beginning of this article, a farm operator need not be a farm owner. He may be a lessee or a renter or either a cash or share of the crop basis. In my next article I shall discuss the share-farmer as a self-employed farmer under social security.

Barrington Decides Aug. 20 On Park Issue

Delinquency

I wish to add my personal thanks to those of your many readers for the fine work you did in covering the recent conference on juvenile delinquency sponsored by Sheriff D. Lohman.

It is only through an aroused public opinion, based on solid factual information, that we can eventually win this fight against juvenile delinquency. Newspapers such as yours, that are willing to present the problem in a realistic and forthright manner, can stimulate community action to combat it.

I am sure that once the average family knows the cause and cure of juvenile delinquency, we will have won the second major battle in this war to save our youth. Our first battle, which was against public apathy, has been won.

Keep up the good work!

Assessment Survey

A survey of property assessments to determine any property not on the tax rolls has been in process for some months under the auspices of the Arlington area school board association. The association is made up of the various public school boards within the boundaries of high school district 214. The survey resulted from discussions and plans at meetings of the association.

I do not know that any individual is qualified to answer the question in last week's Herald as to why the survey had not been made until now. Anyone really interested in the origin and timing of the survey is invited to write to the association in care of the undersigned. The progress and results of the survey will be reported from time to time at regular meetings of the association and interested parties who may wish to attend such meetings will be notified as they occur if request is made to the undersigned.

Sweat And Pray

The past two years you have had an article in the 4-H Buyers Guide with which I do not agree.

Quote: Gone are the days of farming by the sweat of the brow and praying for rain. Unquote.

Can you honestly say that the day of doing a good honest day's work in the sun is past? If not, have you ever toiled in the summer sun and not had to take time out to wipe your brow? Yes, I agree that mechanized farming is much better than it was when Grandpa was a boy. But, there is no machine made, as yet that will furnish air conditioning out in the hay field. Do you think the old saying "Make hay while the sun shines" is outmoded? I have yet to see the day when we can make hay without a few drops of honest sweat added in the hay loft and out in the field.

THEN TO THE PART of praying for rain. Yes, we are getting wiser and some are starting to irrigate. Where do they get the water for irrigation? California is a great state for irrigation but even they are worried when the rains are few in the winter months. Have you ever seen a successful farmer without sunshine and rain at the proper time?

Should we take all this for granted? Would you send me your paper unless I sent in my subscription? How else would you know that I wanted your paper?

WHY DO YOU THINK the Lord should always send rain and the right kind of weather when the people are too lax to go to church and pray? Would you be able to give us rain that we need so badly? Than where else but to the Lord should we go? Do you think we can farm without his help?

I know a lot of good farmers and I think my husband is as "hep" to this modern farming as they come. In the spring we go out in the fields and work the land and plant the seeds. When we are done there is a lot of satisfaction in knowing that we have done all we could. This is as far as we can go and the rest is up to the good Lord to send us sunshine and rain for a harvest. We have faith enough to put the seed in the ground but only the Lord can make it grow and mature.

No, I don't agree with you. I will still keep on praying for rain and as long as I am physically able to work I will probably sweat through the summer months on the farm.

Cleaning Salt Creek

This leter is in reply to the public's question, "Why does the Palatine village board deplete the sewer revenue account for cleaning the (Salt) creek?"

The funds which the board has appropriated to cover the cost of dredging Salt creek represent surplus funds in the Sewer revenue account. These funds have accumulated in the account since 1948, the year of the last bond issue, despite a decrease in rates in 1951. If the Salt creek problem did not exist and if the present facilities were adequate for the present population these funds would be used for future bond retirement and depreciation reserve requirements of the account and the board could consider reducing the rates.

THE CREEK must be dredged to create a deeper channel and make it a flowing stream again. It is now a stagnant pool of water, contaminatied and is a breeding ground for mosquitos and rats. The dredging is not a project to provide for future facilities as much as it is to correct a situation which has been developing for years.

The fact that a surplus has accumulated in the sewer revenue account, of course, means that sewer rental rates have been too high. Therefore, I'll pose another question: "Why aren't rates reduced now so that the surplus will not continue to accumulate?"

The answer is, that our present disposal facilities with the minor expansion we have planned will be adequate for the present population for the next two or three years. This expansion will be financed by sewer revenue.

WHEN THE LIMIT of the expanded facilities is reached, in two or three years, then the board must decide to (1) float a bond issue for an additional disposal plant or (2) petition for annexation to the Chicago sanitary district. Until the planned expansion of existing facilities is completed, the finance committee will not recommend a rate reduction.

Decadent State

After several trips to Arkansas through the past three years on business, one is brought face to face with the reality that our national and global climate is changing, and at a faster pace, getting warmer. Below are interesting facts and neither boosting nor knocking any particular state.

Like the prediction for Arizona, where there is no surface supply and the water table below is receding at an alarming rate, lack of rainfall plagues most of Arkansas. This year we saw many trees from 5 to 20 years old, dead from the drouth of last year. It seems bugs either multiply with the dryness or become more active because of it. Heat wave here?? 110 plus there.

NONE OF THE natives could tell us of a single new industry in the state, nor of any on the increase. The United States census is authority for the statement that only two states in the Union showed a decline in population in the last generation, and Arkansas showed the highest percentage. If it kept just even, it would be far behind the national average, which showed nearly a 100% increase in all of the other 48, some as high as 400%, so the opportunity there seems to be in better roads upon which to leave.

Immense fields where once berries thrived are unplanted, abandoned. Much glamour emanates from the popularity of Hot Springs and Eureka Springs and its baths, but even the industry of catching the "Flat land tourisiters," to quote Snuffy Smith, is far off that of other states. Many abandoned motels and almost no new ones are seen, there, while they are outdoing one another in elegant and luxury equipped new motels in most southern states.

THE CHEAP living proves a myth also. Look in any Sears Catalogue and see if staples cost less there than in the middle west, while at the same time living wages are an exception and not the rule. In one block of 7 homes in a town of about 2,000, all 7 were on pension or relief. A nice 5 room home that would cost no less than $5,000 on a large lot in town rented for $10 a month, all the owner can get, less than his expenses. A very modern 4 cabin motel, on 50 feet highway frontage, landscaped, plus a fine home, city water, gas heat, electricity, phone, 5 acres landscaped, is for sale for $15,000, a little over one half of its cost about 3 or 4 years ago.

WE FORTUNATE mortals living in the area served by Paddock Publications, where boom and building seem commonplace can hardly comprehend the plight of a family man in that area trying to make ends meet, and it cannot be seen in quickly passing through, but is more evident the longer one stays and the farther hinterland he goes. No ocean, few lakes, most rivers too muddy to eat fish from.

This, rather because of changing nature and climate than any shortcomings of the good folk living there, combines to make it the most decadent state, even of the south, where states once considered dormant are booming with new industries, tourists, new hope, and population increases beyond the wildest predictions of a short few years back. Despite the greatest efforts and highest learning, it is useless to fight nature when it makes its changes. Is anyone interested enough to present a different picture, or is there any??

Produce More Lean Pork And Consumers Will Buy It

If farmers would produce meat-type hogs, more pork could be sold at a higher price, says assistant farm adviser John H. Bicket.

According to Brice Kirtley, University of Illinois farm economist, who conducted an experiment, consumers like lean pork chops better than fat ones, and they'll pay more money for them, Bicket says.

This experiment points out that the demand for pork can be increased if consumers can get meat from leaner, well-muscled, meat-type hogs.

THE EXPERIMENT was run for various periods between December, 1953, and April, 1954, in a grocery store in Champaign. The "fat" and "lean" chops were displayed side by side in a regular self-service meat box.

Even at 10 cents a pound more, consumers bought 2 lean pork chops to each fat one. When the premium for lean chops was raised to 18 cents, they bought just as many lean ones as fat ones.

THE LEAN CHOPS were usually labeled "extra lean chops." The amount of fat trimmed off the edge of the lean was usually the same for both lean and fat chops. The difference was in the larger "eye" of the loin and in the amount of fat intermingled with the lean, from where it couldn't be trimmed.

The demand for pork has been dropping, Bicket adds. Today consumers rate beef over pork. In the past consumers spent about $3 for pork to $2 for beef. Now it's just the opposite.

If we can sell more hogs at a better price by giving consumers leaner pork, then we had better do it, Bicket concludes.

State Winners In Soil Conservation

Kankakee and Richland county soil conservation districts have been named outstanding in Illinois for 1955 in the national soil conservation awards competition.

Richard Grob, Reddick, was selected by the Kankakee district as its representative this year, and Everett Kinney, Momence, was named outstanding farmer-cooperator in the grand award-winning district.

In Richland county, Corwin Manning, Newton, was selected as representative to receive the grand award, and James M. Stage, Olney, was named outstanding farmer-cooperator.

Because of the heavy concentration of farming in the state, Illinois is divided into 2 competing areas for the contest, northern and southern. Equivalent top awards go to the winners in the 2 areas.

Side-Dress

You'll save money and get better results if you'll side-dress nitrogen on corn rather than spray it on the leaves.

Doubles Corn

Corn production in southern Illinois counties has doubled since the 1930's and now averages about 80 million bushels a year.

Hog Prices Lowest In 9 Years Here

Last week began with prices of live hogs in Chicago a bare cent a pound above the postwar low of 16 cents reached in 1946. For July or August, it was a nine-year low.

There were two reasons for the low quotation. First, pig population is high; even in this between-season period some farmers have more hogs than they wish to carry on their acreage, especially since the Midwest drought is drying up farm supplies of water. Second, the hot weather that accompanies the drought is choking off demand; few of us associate a delicious brown pork roast and gravy with the weather we've been having.

While cooler weather will bring an upsurge in demand, this fall's expected big corn crop will finish off more hogs for market, too. Hence prices are expected to dip to perhaps 15 cents by October.

Cattle prices are low, too. Good steers, fattened in Corn Belt feedlots, can be had for 23 cents a pound on the hoof.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser CARL F. MEES

Leaf roll is appearing on tomatoes in some areas. This is especially true with staked tomatoes that have been pruned rather heavily.

Leaf roll is a non-parasitic disease which generally appears during dry periods following an extended period of wet weather. It is most likely to occur on plants in poorly drained areas. Close cultivation and excessive pruning also may cause an excessive amount of leaf roll.

Ordinarily plants affected produce a normal or near normal crop. Some plants may lose up to 1/3 of their leaves which will reduce yield and quality of fruit.

Poor fruit set may be observed on peppers and some tomatoes. This is caused by the extremely high temperatures we have had for the last several days.

WALTER SASS, president of the Cook county truck gardeners association and president of Illinois vegetable growers association, together with Mrs. Sass and John Benck, vegetable grower in South Cook county and mayor of Alsip are leaving for a tour of Europe.

The will join a group of vegetable growers in New York to tour the horticultural areas in Europe. This will be an interesting and grand experience I am sure. They plan to return the latter part of September or early October.

Dr. M. B. Linn has been appointed acting head of the newly formed department of plant pathology at the University of Illinois. He has been with the horticulture department since 1942 and has helped many vegetable growers with their disease problems.

THE 4-H FAIR is in full swing as radiant heating in the floors and at the Arlington Park race track automatic waterers for more efficient operation. Wieboldt will bring several young pigs to the studio.

"Farmtown, U.S.A." is a CBS educational feature produced with the cooperation of the Illinois Agricultural Association and the Pure Milk Association. It may be viewed each Sunday at 2 p.m. (DST) on WBBM-TV, channel 2.

Max Cullen, of the national live stock and meat board, will discuss the present heavy production of pork and plans for a fall and winter promotion campaign to move it into consumption.

Cullen will also give a meat cutting demonstration in which he promises to show the housewife how she can use economy cuts of pork to keep within her food budget.

'Pigs Is Pigs' On Farm TV Show

Pigs—on the hoof and in the form of pork chops—will be featured on the "Farmtown, U.S.A." television show on Sunday, August 14.

A McHenry county farmer who runs a pig hatchery will tell how he raises 1,400 pigs each year with the aid of new automatic equipment. He's Robert P. Wieboldt, of Woodstock, who uses such devices this weekend. It starts Friday with the judging of the live stock. Entertainment and crowning of the King and Queen, Friday evening, together with an evening of entertainment both Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday afternoon will feature the horse show and Northwest Mounted black horse troop. You will see some very fine 4-H projects exhibited. Why don't you bring the family out to see the fairs? I am sure everyone will appreciate it.

SEVERAL PETITIONS have been circulating lately requesting the county board to not destroy the Elk herd in Elk Grove township. I am at a loss to know why anyone would want to destroy this herd of elk. They are of interest to everyone that sees them. It costs very little to feed them, for they require little food other than roughage.

The forest preserve has plenty of land that has not been developed, so it is not because of a shortage of land.

If you have not signed a petition and you think the herd should be preserved, why don't you make your wishes known by signing one of the petitions.

What It Takes For Champion Poultry Flock

What does it take to produce an award-winning poultry flock?

Fifteen young poultrymen and poultry women who received awards and trophies on July 25 for their entries in the Illinois junior chicken-of-tomorrow contest have listed the following points, says Don Bray, University of Illinois poultry specialist:

Get stock bred for the job. Poultrymen who are winning the battle against the poultry cost—price squeeze are doing it with birds elected for either their superior meat—or egg—producing ability.

FEED FOR THE JOB. Poultry feeds aren't all alike, so select the feed that's made for broiler, laying or breeding flocks, whichever kind you have.

Manage for the job. Provide evening lights in hot weather and enough ventilation to stimulate feather growth. Give your flock more waterers and feeders if they crowd.

Contestants selected their 10 best of 50 wing-banded cockerel for final judging in this contest, says Bray. Judges considered weight, conformation, fleshing, feathering, uniformity and deformities, so contestants had to weigh these factors in selecting their contest birds.

One hundred fifty 4-H club and FFA members took part in the final judging at Lincoln.

Wheat Allotment For Farms With No Wheat History For 3 Years

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of the years 1953, 1954 and 1955 may apply for a 1956 wheat acreage allotment, according to Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the Cook county agricultural stabilization and conservation committee. To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for grain for any of these years, the farmer must apply in writing to this county ASC committee by August 31, 1955.

Blank application forms are available at the county ASC office for use in filing requests for allotments.

FCDA Offers Farmers Ways To Fight Fallout Here

There is no place that can be sure it would escape unscathed in an atomic attack on this nation, the Federal Civil Defense Administration is warning rural America.

The chief threat to the farmer is fallout, the silent, often invisible and deadly "rain" of radioactive matter from the skies after the surface burst of a heavy nuclear weapon.

This can occur hundreds of miles from the site of a blast, and is the reason FCDA has arranged for daily U. S. Weather Bureau predictions of the probable patterns for radioactive fallout if bombs were to fall on likely target cities.

HEAVY RANGE weapons hurl millions of tons of dust-fine debris to extreme altitude where it is caught in fast windstreams and blown long distances before it returns to earth.

The pattern of fall generally is roughly cigar-shaped, with varied intensity in the area so that some places will be "hotter" than others. Evacuation may be necessary from these places.

For the most part there are certain elemental precautions that could be taken by every rural family if it were warned of a fallout threat. Such warnings would come on Conelrad radio, the 640 and 1240 frequencies.

WHEN WARNING time permits, the first thing to do would be to get animals under cover. A barn would reduce radioactivity a great deal, and if the loft happened to be filled with hay, this would cut it still further.

The family should immediately get under cover. The ideal would be something like a cyclone cellar, with three feet of earth on top. That would cut radioactivity to almost nothing. But the farm home itself is protection, and the cellar of a farm home would be even better.

EVERY FAMILY, FCDA reminds, should be prepared to live there for as much as a week without venturing outside. Civil defense monitoring will show when danger is past, and information will be given by radio, telephone, and even messengers. A battery powered radio could be vitally important.

At the earliest time that it is safe to venture outside, it would be wise to get a ladder and wash off the roof. This would sharply cut the radiation inside the home. Places where the water runs off the roof will, of course, be radiologically "hot" and unsafe.

RADIOACTIVITY is very unlikely to have significant effect on the water supply of an average farm that draws from a typical covered well. Large bodies of water, like reservoirs with large surfaces, should be avoided until they are checked with instruments.

Radiological contamination on the ground can be made far less harmful by plowing it under. This might well be done around the house and farm buildings, and ground that will be used for human or animal occupancy.

The earth cover resulting from plowing will reduce radiation, FCDA reports.

STORED GRAIN that has any decent kind of cover to protect it from radioactive particles from the fallout should be usable for animal or human food or for seed. If the grain were not protected from fallout, it would be necesary to wait for several days until the radiation lessens. More information is still needed on the effect of radiation on grain planted in contaminated ground, as to what it does to growing plants, or its effects on humans or animals who eat those plants.

Available knowledge indicates, however, that the average farmer and rancher, warned of approaching fallout, should be pretty well able to survive it, preserve his domestic animals, and go on living and farming.

FARMERS LIVING near cities might be asked for personal rescue service, as would every able-bodied man within an effective distance of a bombed city.

Farmers would be called on to farm with efficiency and ability such as perhaps they've never had to practice before, because FCDA believes that the recovery of this nation from an all-out nuclear attack must come in important degree from the rural areas.

Most of the nation's cities will be prime targets, and most of the strength for restoration must come from the farms and ranches. (FM

Industrial Accident Death Rate Down

Although the number of American workers has increased nearly 50 per cent since the depression year of 1933, the number of workers killed on the job has gone down.

According to the 1955 edition of the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," just off the press, there were 14,000 workers killed on the job in 1954. In 1933, with a much smaller work force, the number was 14,500.

The council noted that 1954 was the 8th consecutive year in which the accident frequency rate of its industrial members has been reduced.
